

□ Your Safety Comes First

Some of what you shared suggests you may be dealing with a situation that could put your safety at risk. You are not alone, and help is available right now — you do not need a lawyer or any money to reach it.

If you are in immediate danger, call 911.

You can reach trained, confidential help any time:

- National Domestic Violence Hotline — call 1-800-799-7233, or text START to 88788 (<https://www.thehotline.org>)
- National Dating Abuse Helpline — call 1-866-331-9474, or text LOVEIS to 22522
- Stalking Prevention, Awareness, and Resource Center (SPARC) (<https://www.stalkingawareness.org>)
- Text the Crisis Text Line: text HOME to 741741 (open 24/7, for any kind of crisis)
- A safety plan can help you prepare for emergencies. The National DV Hotline can help create one.

Asking a court to protect you. If someone has hurt you or made you afraid, you can ask a court for an Order for Protection (sometimes called a restraining order). It is a free request you can make yourself: the court clerk's office or a local advocate can give you the forms and walk you through them, often the same day. A domestic violence advocate (reachable through the hotline above)

can help you fill them out and can go with you.

You get to decide what feels safe for you. The steps above are here whenever you are ready.

□ Deadlines & Time-Sensitive Items

Read this first. Missing a legal deadline can end a case. The dates below are estimates generated automatically — always confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

⚠ I got served, like a sheriff's deputy came to my work... it says I have 30 days to file a Response or he could get everything he's asking for including he wants full custody...

- Estimated deadline: 2026-07-15
- Basis: Minn. Stat. § 518.12 (respondent's answer due 30 days after service of the petition)
- Triggering event: served on 2026-06-15
- Jurisdiction: MN
- In a Minnesota dissolution/family matter the answer is generally due 30 days after you were served with the petition. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

⚠ there's also some court date in July, the packet has an 'Initial Case Management Conference' I think July 22...

- Estimated deadline: 2026-07-22
- Basis: The court's own summons, hearing notice, or scheduling order setting this date — a court's order or summons is the governing primary authority for a court-scheduled appearance (confirm the date against the document itself).
- Triggering event: hearing on 2026-07-22
- Jurisdiction: MN
- This is a date the court gave you directly (a hearing, court date, or stated deadline). Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

⚠ Corey grabbed my arm so hard he left a bruise (I have pictures)...

- Estimated deadline: date unclear — this time-sensitive item needs an exact date.
- Triggering event: incident on 2026-06-28
- Jurisdiction: MN
- Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

Executive Summary

This intake revealed 17 possible legal issues in Minnesota. The most clearly supported issues include Petition for Custody (requesting legal authority over a child), Domestic Violence Threats (harassment or intimidation), and Motion for Change of Custody (asking for a change in who has custody of the child). There is a time-sensitive deadline: I received a notice, similar to what a sheriff would deliver to my workplace... it states that I have 30 days to file a response, or the other party could receive everything they requested, including full custody of the child... by 2026-07-15 [Minn. Stat. § 518.12 (the law says the response is due 30 days after the petition is served)]. There are safety concerns mentioned in this narrative; see the safety resources listed below. The analysis is complete, with a score of 100%; answering the 11 follow-up questions below would enhance the assessment.
