You can reach trained, confidential help any time:

Asking a court to protect you. If someone has hurt you or made you afraid, you can ask a court for an Order for Protection (sometimes called a restraining order). It is a free request you can make yourself: the court clerk's office or a local advocate can give you the forms and walk you through them, often the same day. A domestic violence advocate (reachable through the hotline above) can help you fill them out and can go with you.

You get to decide what feels safe for you. The steps above are here whenever you are ready.

□ Deadlines & Time-Sensitive Items

Read this first. Missing a legal deadline can end a case. The dates below are estimates generated automatically — always confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

□ I came to this country on August 14, 2019. — DEADLINE MAY HAVE PASSED

- Estimated deadline: 2020-08-14
- Basis: INA § 208(a)(2)(B); 8 U.S.C. § 1158(a)(2)(B) (one-year filing deadline)
- Triggering event: entry on 2019-08-14
- WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. Asylum applications generally must be filed within one year of arrival in the United States. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. Because this one-year asylum deadline appears to have already passed, you may still be able to apply if an EXCEPTION applies: 'changed circumstances' that materially affect eligibility, or 'extraordinary circumstances' that excuse the late filing (for example serious illness, or ineffective assistance / fraud by a notario or non-lawyer). This exception pathway is governed by INA § 208(a)(2)(D); 8 U.S.C. § 1158(a)(2)(D). Ask an immigration lawyer whether one of these exceptions applies to you — the late deadline may not be the end of your asylum claim.

⚠ The next hearing is scheduled for August 20, 2026, at 9:00 a.m.

- Estimated deadline: 2026-08-20
- Basis: The hearing date on your Notice to Appear / EOIR hearing notice (8 C.F.R. § 1003.18; INA § 239). Failure to appear can result in an in-absentia removal order.
- Triggering event: hearing on 2026-08-20
- Jurisdiction: MN
- This is the hearing date printed on your immigration court notice — you must appear. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

Follow-up Steps

- [] [URGENT] PAST-DUE? Confirm the deadline for: I came to this country on August 14, 2019. (estimated 2020-08-14; INA § 208(a)(2)(B); 8 U.S.C. § 1158(a)(2)(B) (one-year filing deadline)).

1158(a)(2)(D). Ask an immigration lawyer whether one of these exceptions applies to you — the late deadline may not be the end of your asylum claim.

- [] [URGENT] Confirm the deadline for: The next hearing is scheduled for August 20, 2026, at 9:00 a.m. (estimated 2026-08-20; The hearing date on your Notice to Appear / EOIR hearing notice (8 C.F.R. § 1003.18; INA § 239). Failure to appear can result in an in-absentia removal order.). This is the hearing date printed on your immigration court notice — you must appear. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

- Deadline: 2026-08-20

- [] [URGENT] You described being hurt by a spouse who is a U.S. citizen or green-card holder. Federal law (VAWA) may let you apply for immigration status on your own, without their help or knowledge — this is called a VAWA self-petition. Has a lawyer ever talked with you about whether you qualify? [Authority: INA § 204(a)(1); 8 U.S.C. § 1154 (VAWA self-petition)]
- [] [URGENT] What you described — being physically hurt or threatened by a family or household member — may qualify you for an Order for Protection (a court order that can be issued the same day you ask, before any hearing). In Minnesota this is Minn. Stat. § 518B.01; other states have an equivalent. Would you like information about asking the court for one now, separate from any other case? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 518B.01 (Order for Protection; ex parte relief available)]
- [] [URGENT] You said you were the victim of a crime and helped the police. Victims of certain crimes who cooperate with law enforcement may qualify for a U visa (U nonimmigrant status). This needs a certification form (I-918B) signed by the police or prosecutor — has anyone requested one for you? [Authority: INA § 101(a)(15)(U); 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(U) (U nonimmigrant status; Form I-918 Supplement B certification)]

- [] [URGENT] Asylum applications normally must be filed within one year of arriving in the U.S. If your first year has passed — including if someone who was not a real lawyer took your money and never filed — you may still qualify under the 'changed circumstances' or 'extraordinary circumstances' exceptions (fraud by a notario can count). Ask a lawyer about the one-year-bar exceptions. When did you arrive, and did anyone ever actually file an asylum application for you? [Authority: INA § 208(a)(2)(B), (D); 8 U.S.C. § 1158(a)(2)(B), (D) (one-year bar; changed/extraordinary-circumstances exceptions)]
- [] [URGENT] You mentioned working with a Social Security number that is not yours. Working without authorization can normally block a green-card application filed inside the U.S. (the INA § 245(c)(2) bar) — BUT people approved under VAWA are exempt from that bar. A lawyer should review this together with any VAWA option. Have you told a lawyer about this work history? [Authority: INA § 245(c)(2); 8 U.S.C. § 1255(c)(2) (unauthorized-employment bar; VAWA self-petitioners exempt)]
- [] [URGENT] About the immigration papers (Notice to Appear) you received: did that first notice state the exact TIME, DATE, and PLACE of your court hearing, or were those details missing or sent later? A notice missing those details can matter to your case (it can affect eligibility clocks) — bring the original papers to a lawyer. [Authority: Pereira v. Sessions, 138 S. Ct. 2105 (2018); Niz-Chavez v. Garland, 141 S. Ct. 1474 (2021) (defective Notice to Appear)]
