

□ Your Safety Comes First

Some of what you shared suggests you may be dealing with a situation that could put your safety at risk. You are not alone, and help is available right now — you do not need a lawyer or any money to reach it.

If you are in immediate danger, call 911.

You can reach trained, confidential help any time:

- HUD Housing Counseling — call 1-800-569-4287
- Text the Crisis Text Line: text HOME to 741741 (open 24/7, for any kind of crisis)

You get to decide what feels safe for you. The steps above are here whenever you are ready.

□ Deadlines & Time-Sensitive Items

Read this first. Missing a legal deadline can end a case. The dates below are estimates generated automatically — always confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

□ these new court papers say the case is set for april 1st at 9am at halden county court, housing division — DEADLINE MAY HAVE PASSED

- Estimated deadline: 2026-04-01
- Basis: Minn. Stat. § 504B.321 (Minnesota eviction summons/hearing procedure); the hearing date printed on your summons or hearing notice.
- Triggering event: hearing on 2026-04-01
- Jurisdiction: MN
- WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. This is the eviction hearing date printed on your court papers — you must appear; in Minnesota your defenses are raised at this hearing (there is no separate written answer deadline). Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. If this hearing date has already passed, contact the housing court immediately. If a judgment was entered against you, ask about a motion to vacate the judgment and about expungement of the eviction record (Minn. Stat. § 484.014) — missing the hearing does not always end your options.

□ the notice stated the individual owes $350.00. The $350 includes $300 back rent and a $50 late fee. The individual has 14 days to pay the $350 or move out. — DEADLINE MAY HAVE PASSED

- Estimated deadline: 2026-03-17
- Basis: Minn. Stat. § 504B.321, subd. 1a (14-day written notice required before an eviction action for nonpayment of rent); for other Minnesota notice-to-quit periods see Minn. Stat. § 504B.135. The period printed on your notice controls if longer.

- Triggering event: notice posted on 2026-03-03
- Jurisdiction: MN
- WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. Minnesota requires a written notice period before a nonpayment eviction can be filed; the cure/vacate date is computed from the day the notice was given. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. If this notice period has already passed, an eviction case may have been filed — but that is not the end: in Minnesota you can still raise your defenses at the eviction hearing (including paying what is owed to redeem in a nonpayment case, Minn. Stat. § 504B.291). If a judgment was already entered, ask about vacating it and about expungement (Minn. Stat. § 484.014).

Executive Summary

This intake has identified 16 possible legal issues related to the case. The issues that have the most support are the Breach of Implied Warranty of Habitability (which means the landlord did not keep the rental property livable), Failure to Provide a Receipted Payment for Pet Fee (which means the landlord didn't give a receipt for the pet fee), and a Potential Defense for Eviction (which refers to reasons that could legally prevent eviction).

IMPORTANT: It looks like at least one deadline has already passed. The new court documents state that the case is scheduled for April 1st at 9 a.m. at Halden County Court, in the housing division (computed 2026-04-01) [Minn. Stat. § 504B.321 (Minnesota eviction summons/hearing procedure); the hearing date printed on your summons or hearing notice.]. You need to confirm this right away because missing deadlines can cause the case to be thrown out. There are also safety concerns mentioned in this situation; please see the safety resources listed below. The analysis so far is 75% complete; answering the 6 follow-up questions below would help improve the assessment.

General

| Causal Link Between Mold and Health Issues

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 40%

ISSUE

Although it hasn't been medically proven yet, the link between health problems and living conditions could mean that the landlord might be responsible for those issues.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

CONCLUSION

No elements defined

| Failure to Provide Receipts

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 40%

ISSUE

Not providing receipts could violate local laws that govern landlord-tenant relationships, and not having proof of a fee could weaken the landlord's case for a serious violation of the lease agreement.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Failure to Provide Receipts' has not been explored with fact mappings

CONCLUSION

No elements defined

| Landlord's Duty to Repair

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 40%

ISSUE

Landlords are responsible for keeping rental properties in livable condition. The persistent mold problem has been reported several times, and the delays in fixing the heating during very cold weather might support Danika's case.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

| Negligence by Landlord

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 40%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/RC8bnzMEhgjx01vV9ngLiR3>

ISSUE

Landlords are required to keep rental properties safe and livable (habitable) and may be held responsible for any harm if they do not fix dangerous issues.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

CONCLUSION

No elements defined

| Tenant's Right to Habitability with Children

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 40%

ISSUE

Children with asthma are especially at risk from mold. The legal rules about what makes a living space acceptable (habitability) can be understood in a stricter way when it comes to protecting a child's health.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Residential Lease Agreement: Supported (85% confidence) -
There exists a residential lease agreement between the tenant and the landlord.
 - Fact: Danika Osgood has a lease dated July 1, 2025. (85% match)

- Uninhabitable Conditions: Supported (85% confidence) - The rental unit has conditions that render it uninhabitable, such as mold and lack of heating.
 - Fact: The mold issue in the bathroom ceiling has been ignored since October. (85% match)
 - Fact: Wendell states that the dark spot probably just needs cleaning with bleach. (85% match)
- Notification to Landlord: Supported (85% confidence) - The tenant has notified the landlord about the issues and given them a reasonable opportunity to resolve them.
 - Fact: The individual has text messages from November 12 and December 2 about the mold issue. (85% match)

Failure to Provide a Receipted Payment for Pet Fee

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 75%

ISSUE

Danika said she did not get a receipt for the $500 she paid for having a cat. This could suggest problems with keeping accurate financial records and might lead to arguments about whether the payment was valid or who is responsible for certain costs under the rental agreement (lease).

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Payment Made: Supported (85% confidence) - The tenant made a payment for the pet fee.
 - Fact: The total amount due includes $1,200.00 in unpaid rent plus a $50.00 late fee. (85% match)
 - Fact: The landlord is associated with Krupicka Properties. (85% match)
- Lack of Receipt: Supported (85% confidence) - The tenant did not receive a receipt, leading to potential disputes about the payment.
 - Fact: The individual did not receive a receipt for the $500 payment. (85% match)
- Documentation Requirement: Supported (85% confidence) - Landlords should provide receipts for any fees or payments received.
 - Fact: The lease runs through June 2026. (85% match)

| Potential Defense for Eviction

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 40%

ISSUE

Based on the situations mentioned, Danika might have reasons to fight against being evicted because of the problems with her rental unit and her efforts to inform the landlord. This includes the landlord possibly breaking the implied warranty of habitability (the legal requirement for a rental unit to be livable) and not fixing the problems she reported.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Landlord's Duty to Maintain: Supported (85% confidence) - The landlord has a legal obligation to maintain the rental premises in a habitable condition.
 - Fact: Eviction proceedings may commence in Halden County District Court if Danika Osgood fails to comply. (85% match)

- Notice and Opportunity to Resolve: Supported (85% confidence) - The tenant provided notice of the issues and gave the landlord an opportunity to resolve them.
 - Fact: The individual has text messages from November 12 and December 2 about the mold issue. (85% match)
- Ongoing Issues: Supported (85% confidence) - The tenant can demonstrate ongoing unresolved issues that affect habitability.
 - Fact: The mold issue in the bathroom ceiling has been ignored since October. (85% match)

| Withholding Rent Due to Repair Issues

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 40%

ISSUE

Danika has stopped paying her rent because of the mold problem and the lack of heat. She is trying to use this action to push for repairs to be made. This situation is based on the tenant's rights to withhold rent if there are issues that impact their living conditions.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Notice of Repairs: Supported (85% confidence) - The tenant must provide notice to the landlord about repair needs.
 - Fact: Danika reports the mold issue has worsened on December 2, 2025. (85% match)
 - Fact: The mold issue in the bathroom ceiling has been ignored since October. (85% match)
- Landlord's Failure to Act: Supported (85% confidence) - The landlord failed to take timely action to remedy the issues after receiving notice.
 - Fact: The individual called the city on February 20. (78% match)
 - Fact: Wendell sends someone to fix the heat issue on January 23, 2026. (85% match)
- Withholding Rent: Supported (82% confidence) - The tenant withholds rent payment as a method to compel the landlord to act.
 - Fact: The individual claims to have not paid $300 of the $1200 rent. (81% match)
 - Fact: The individual did not pay the $350. (82% match)

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Procedural Requirement (Priority 50): What is the deadline for notifying the landlord about the repair issues before withholding rent could be deemed ineffective?

- [] [URGENT] You reported problems to the city (or an inspector cited your landlord) shortly before the eviction steps started. If a landlord moves to evict soon after a tenant reports code violations, the law may presume retaliation — in Minnesota, Minn. Stat. § 504B.285/§ 504B.441; other states have an equivalent. Deposits are regulated — in Minnesota the landlord must account for them, pay interest, and return them with an itemized statement (Minn. Stat. § 504B.178); other states have an equivalent. A cash payment with no receipt can still count. How much did you pay, when, and do you have any proof (texts, witnesses, bank withdrawal)? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 504B.178 (security deposits: receipt, interest, return); § 504B.172]
- [] [URGENT] Your notice appears to give a vague reason (like a 'material lease violation' box with no specifics).
