□ Deadlines & Time-Sensitive Items

Read this first. Missing a legal deadline can end a case. The dates below are estimates generated automatically — always confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

□ the case is set for April 1st at 9am at halden county court, housing division — DEADLINE MAY HAVE PASSED

- Estimated deadline: 2026-04-01
- Basis: Minn. Stat. § 504B.321 (Minnesota eviction summons/hearing procedure); the hearing date printed on your summons or hearing notice.
- Triggering event: hearing on 2026-04-01
- Jurisdiction: MN
- WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. This is the eviction hearing date printed on your court papers — you must appear; in Minnesota your defenses are raised at this hearing (there is no separate written answer deadline). Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. If this hearing date has already passed, contact the housing court immediately. If a judgment was entered against you, ask about a motion to vacate the judgment and about expungement of the eviction record (Minn. Stat. § 484.014) — missing the hearing does not always end your options.

□ the 14-day notice showed up taped to the door saying i owe $350 (300 back rent + 50 late fee) and i have 14 days to pay it all or move out — DEADLINE MAY HAVE PASSED

- Estimated deadline: 2026-03-17
- Basis: Minn. Stat. § 504B.321, subd. 1a (14-day written notice required before an eviction action for nonpayment of rent); for other Minnesota notice-to-quit periods see Minn. Stat. § 504B.135. The period printed on your notice controls if longer.

- Triggering event: notice posted on 2026-03-03
- Jurisdiction: MN
- WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. Minnesota requires a written notice period before a nonpayment eviction can be filed; the cure/vacate date is computed from the day the notice was given. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. If this notice period has already passed, an eviction case may have been filed — but that is not the end: in Minnesota you can still raise your defenses at the eviction hearing (including paying what is owed to redeem in a nonpayment case, Minn. Stat. § 504B.291). If a judgment was already entered, ask about vacating it and about expungement (Minn. Stat. § 484.014).

⚠️ marcus has asthma and hes been coughing so much worse since like december

- Triggering event: incident on 2025-12-01
- Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

⚠️ my son marcus is 7 and has asthma and hes been coughing so much worse since like december, i really think its the mold but i dont have like a doctor saying that in writing yet

Executive Summary

This intake revealed 13 possible legal problems related to housing issues. The three most supported problems are Breach of Implied Warranty of Habitability (failure to keep a rental property livable), Constructive Eviction (when a landlord makes living in the rental unlivable), and Negligence in Repair (failing to fix something that needs to be repaired). IMPORTANT: It seems that at least one important deadline has already passed — the case is scheduled for April 1st at 9 am at Halden County Court, housing division (computed 2026-04-01) [Minn. Stat. § 504B.321 (Minnesota eviction summons/hearing procedure); look for the hearing date on your summons or hearing notice.]. Please confirm this right away, as missing deadlines can potentially end a case. Safety issues were found in this account; see the safety resources listed below. The analysis is about 76% complete; answering the 9 follow-up questions below would enhance the assessment.
