

□ Your Safety Comes First

Some of what you shared suggests you may be dealing with a situation that could put your safety at risk. You are not alone, and help is available right now — you do not need a lawyer or any money to reach it.

If you are in immediate danger, call 911.

You can reach trained, confidential help any time:

- National Domestic Violence Hotline — call 1-800-799-7233, or text START to 88788 (<https://www.thehotline.org>)
- National Dating Abuse Helpline — call 1-866-331-9474, or text LOVEIS to 22522
- Stalking Prevention, Awareness, and Resource Center (SPARC) (<https://www.stalkingawareness.org>)
- Text the Crisis Text Line: text HOME to 741741 (open 24/7, for any kind of crisis)
- A safety plan can help you prepare for emergencies. The National DV Hotline can help create one.

Asking a court to protect you. If someone has hurt you or made you afraid, you can ask a court for an Order for Protection (sometimes called a restraining order). It is a free request you can make yourself: the court clerk's office or a local advocate can give you the forms and walk you through them, often the same day. A domestic violence advocate (reachable through the hotline above)

can help you fill them out and can go with you.

You get to decide what feels safe for you. The steps above are here whenever you are ready.

□ Deadlines & Time-Sensitive Items

Read this first. Missing a legal deadline can end a case. The dates below are estimates generated automatically — always confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

⚠ I got served, like a sheriff's deputy came to my work ... it says I have 30 days to file a Response

- Estimated deadline: 2026-07-15
- Basis: Minn. Stat. § 518.12 (respondent's answer due 30 days after service of the petition)
- Triggering event: served on 2026-06-15
- Jurisdiction: MN
- In a Minnesota dissolution/family matter the answer is generally due 30 days after you were served with the petition. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

---

⚠ An Initial Case Management Conference (ICMC) has been scheduled: Date: July 22, 2026

- Estimated deadline: 2026-07-22
- Basis: The court's own summons, hearing notice, or scheduling order setting this date — a court's order or summons is the governing primary authority for a court-scheduled appearance (confirm the date against the document itself).
- Triggering event: hearing on 2026-07-22
- Jurisdiction: MN
- This is a date the court gave you directly (a hearing, court date, or stated deadline). Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

---

⚠ Corey grabbed my arm so hard he left a bruise

- Estimated deadline: date unclear — this time-sensitive item needs an exact date.
- Triggering event: incident on 2026-06-28
- Jurisdiction: MN
- Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

Executive Summary

This intake identified 13 possible legal issues in the state. The issues that are most clearly supported include Domestic Violence, Restraining Order, and Custody Modification. A deadline was calculated: I received legal papers at my workplace, which state that I have 30 days to file a Response by 2026-07-15 [Minn. Stat. § 518.12 (the law says that a respondent must respond within 30 days after receiving the petition)]. There are safety concerns highlighted in this account; please see the safety resources below. The analysis is 75% complete, and answering the 10 follow-up questions below would improve the assessment.

General

| Restraining Order

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 92%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/R7ASJC76FQwJNtH4rbUqULk>

ISSUE

The recorded incident of violence and the past behavior of making threats could support the need for a restraining order (a legal order to protect someone from harassment or harm) for Dahlia's safety.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Restraining Order' has not been explored with fact mappings
- Procedural Requirement (Priority 50): What specific procedural requirements must be met when filing for a restraining order in the context of documented violence?

| Potential Criminal Assault

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 85%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/R8BLgPtZOuKFI8MtZNTaT0u>

ISSUE

The incident where Corey grabbed Dahlia's arm and left a mark could be considered criminal assault (a crime where someone causes harm or threatens to harm another person) under Minnesota law. Additionally, the fact that children were present during the incident raises other concerns related to child welfare (the well-being and protection of children).

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Potential Criminal Assault' has not been explored with fact mappings
- Procedural Requirement (Priority 50): What is the statute of limitations for filing a criminal complaint regarding the assault incident?

| Obstruction of Justice

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 75%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/RCNCBNpw84e0SAwaLCvbKNf>

ISSUE

Corey's warning not to call the police suggests that he wants to prevent law enforcement from getting involved in a situation of domestic violence.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

| Child Endangerment

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 40%

ISSUE

Corey's behavior during the incident, such as yelling and being physically aggressive, might be seen as putting the emotional and mental health of the children at risk.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

| Impact of Informal Parenting Arrangements

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 40%

ISSUE

The casual way they arranged things before might make it harder for Corey to succeed in their petition because it shows that Dahlia has mainly taken care of the children. This could be used in talks about custody (who gets to take care of the kids).

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

| Legal Representation Challenges

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 40%

ISSUE

The financial barrier could restrict Dahlia's ability to effectively defend herself against Corey's claims, particularly because family law issues can be complicated. It is important to look into options for free legal help or legal aid.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

Stalking or Harassment

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 30%

ISSUE

Since Corey is often sending Dahlia threatening messages, this may be seen as a pattern of harassment (unwanted and aggressive behavior) that can be dealt with through legal action.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

ISSUE

The bruise on the client's arm from Corey grabbing it, along with the threatening behavior Corey showed toward the client, suggests possible domestic violence and threats of harm.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Physical Harm: Supported (85% confidence) - The client has sustained physical injury, evidenced by a bruise caused by Corey.
  - Fact: Corey grabbed my arm so hard he left a bruise. (85% match)
  - Fact: I have pictures of the bruise. (85% match)
- Threats of Harm: Supported (85% confidence) - Corey verbally threatened the client regarding custody and implied physical harm if she continues with legal actions.
  - Fact: Corey was screaming that if I 'tried anything' with the custody case he'd take the kids. (85% match)
  - Fact: Corey said I'd 'never see them again.' (85% match)
  - Fact: Corey threatens that Dahlia will never see the kids again if she tries anything with the petition. (85% match)

- Fact: Corey implies physical harm if Dahlia continues.
(85% match)

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Procedural Requirement (Priority 50): What is the timeline for filing an Order for Protection based on domestic violence incidents or threatening behavior?

CONCLUSION

The statement indicates that two out of two identified elements were backed up with evidence, and there is an 85% level of confidence in this conclusion.

ISSUE

Corey wants to have full custody of the child and is asking that the client only have supervised visits with the child. This shows that there is likely going to be a disagreement about changing the custody arrangement.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Current Custody Arrangement: Supported (85% confidence) - Identify the existing informal, alternating weekend arrangement and establish its suitability.
  - Fact: Corey gets the kids every other weekend. (85% match)
- Material Change in Circumstances: Supported (78% confidence) - Demonstrate that significant changes warrant a modification in custody arrangements.
  - Fact: We got into it about the papers. (78% match)
- Best Interest of the Child: Supported (85% confidence) - Prove that any changes proposed align with the best interests of the children involved.
  - Fact: The minor child Miles A. Renshaw was born on April 11, 2019. (85% match)

- Fact: The minor child Ava R. Renshaw was born on September 2, 2021. (85% match)

Stat. § 518.12 (respondent's answer due 30 days after service of the petition)). In a Minnesota dissolution/family matter the answer is generally due 30 days after you were served with the petition. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.
  - Deadline: 2026-07-15
- [ ] [URGENT] Confirm the deadline for: An Initial Case Management Conference (ICMC) has been scheduled: Date: July 22, 2026 (estimated 2026-07-22; The court's own summons, hearing notice, or scheduling order setting this date — a court's order or summons is the governing primary authority for a court-scheduled appearance (confirm the date against the document itself).). This is a date the court gave you directly (a hearing, court date, or stated deadline). Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.
  - Deadline: 2026-07-22
- [ ] [URGENT] What you described — being physically hurt or threatened by a family or household member — may qualify you for an Order for Protection (a court order that can be issued the same day you ask, before any hearing). In Minnesota this is Minn. Stat. § 518B.01; other states have an equivalent. Would you like information about asking the court for one now, separate from any other case? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 518B.01 (Order for Protection; ex parte relief available)]
- [ ] [URGENT] You said you were the victim of a crime and helped the police. Victims of certain crimes who cooperate with law enforcement may qualify for a U visa (U nonimmigrant status). 101(a)(15)(U); 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(U) (U nonimmigrant status; Form I-918 Supplement B certification)]

- [ ] [URGENT] In a custody decision, the court must consider any domestic abuse that has occurred between the parents. In Minnesota this is a required 'best interests' factor (Minn. Stat. § 518.17); other states have an equivalent. The incident you described may matter to the custody case itself — make sure it is raised, not just handled separately. Do you have records (photos, texts, a police report) of what happened? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 518.17, subd. 1(a)(4) (domestic-abuse best-interest custody factor)]
- [ ] [URGENT] You mentioned a threat to take the children away so you could not find them. Courts can put safeguards in place while a custody case is pending (holding passports, supervised exchanges, interim parenting-time terms). Tell the court about this threat — do you have it in writing or did anyone witness it? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 518.17 (interim parenting-time terms); Minn. Stat. § 609.26 (deprivation of custodial/parental rights)]
- [ ] [URGENT] About the immigration papers (Notice to Appear) you received: did that first notice state the exact TIME, DATE, and PLACE of your court hearing, or were those details missing or sent later? A notice missing those details can matter to your case (it can affect eligibility clocks) — bring the original papers to a lawyer. [Authority: Pereira v. Sessions, 138 S. Stat. § 518B.01 (Order for Protection; ex parte relief available)]

- Procedural Requirement (Priority 88): In a custody decision, the court must consider any domestic abuse that has occurred between the parents. In Minnesota this is a required 'best interests' factor (Minn. Stat. § 518.17); other states have an equivalent. The incident you described may matter to the custody case itself — make sure it is raised, not just handled separately. Do you have records (photos, texts, a police report) of what happened? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 518.17, subd. 1(a)(4) (domestic-abuse best-interest custody factor)]

- See Action Item #11

- Procedural Requirement (Priority 86): You mentioned a threat to take the children away so you could not find them. Courts can put safeguards in place while a custody case is pending (holding passports, supervised exchanges, interim parenting-time terms). Tell the court about this threat — do you have it in writing or did anyone witness it? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 518.17 (interim parenting-time terms); Minn. Stat. § 609.26 (deprivation of custodial/parental rights)]
