

□ Your Safety Comes First

Some of what you shared suggests you may be dealing with a situation that could put your safety at risk. You are not alone, and help is available right now — you do not need a lawyer or any money to reach it.

If you are in immediate danger, call 911.

You can reach trained, confidential help any time:

- National Domestic Violence Hotline — call 1-800-799-7233, or text START to 88788 (<https://www.thehotline.org>)
- National Dating Abuse Helpline — call 1-866-331-9474, or text LOVEIS to 22522
- National Immigrant Women's Advocacy Project (<https://niwaplibrary.wcl.american.edu>)
- Immigration Advocates Network (<https://www.immigrationadvocates.org>)
- Text the Crisis Text Line: text HOME to 741741 (open 24/7, for any kind of crisis)
- A safety plan can help you prepare for emergencies. The National DV Hotline can help create one.

Asking a court to protect you. If someone has hurt you or made you afraid, you can ask a court for an Order for Protection (sometimes called a restraining order). It is a free request you can make yourself: the court clerk's office or a local advocate can give you the forms and walk you through them, often the same day. A domestic violence advocate (reachable through the hotline above) can help you fill them out and can go with you.

You get to decide what feels safe for you. The steps above are here whenever you are ready.

□ Deadlines & Time-Sensitive Items

Read this first. Missing a legal deadline can end a case. The dates below are estimates generated automatically — always confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

□ The speaker came to this country on August 14, 2019. — DEADLINE MAY HAVE PASSED

- Estimated deadline: 2020-08-14
- Basis: INA § 208(a)(2)(B); 8 U.S.C. § 1158(a)(2)(B) (one-year filing deadline)
- Triggering event: entry on 2019-08-14
- WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. Asylum applications generally must be filed within one year of arrival in the United States. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. Because this one-year asylum deadline appears to have already passed, you may still be able to apply if an EXCEPTION applies: 'changed circumstances' that materially affect eligibility, or 'extraordinary circumstances' that excuse the late filing (for example serious illness, or ineffective assistance / fraud by a notario or non-lawyer). This exception pathway is governed by INA § 208(a)(2)(D); 8 U.S.C. § 1158(a)(2)(D). Ask an immigration lawyer whether one of these exceptions applies to you — the late deadline may not be the end of your asylum claim.

⚠ The next hearing in Marisol's case is scheduled for August 20, 2026.

- Estimated deadline: 2026-08-20
- Basis: The hearing date on your Notice to Appear / EOIR hearing notice (8 C.F.R. § 1003.18; INA § 239). Failure to appear can result in an in-absentia removal order.
- Triggering event: hearing on 2026-08-20
- Jurisdiction: MN
- This is the hearing date printed on your immigration court notice — you must appear. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

⚠ A domestic assault occurred on March 15, 2026 at approximately 22:40 hrs.

- Estimated deadline: date unclear — this time-sensitive item needs an exact date.
 - Triggering event: incident on 2026-03-15
 - Jurisdiction: MN
 - Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

Executive Summary

This intake identified 8 potential legal issues in Minnesota, specifically regarding Federal Immigration Court. The issues that have the most support are Domestic Violence and Assault, Failure to Appear in Removal Proceedings (not showing up for an important hearing), and Immigration Relief Application (requesting help to stay in the country).

IMPORTANT: It's crucial to note that at least one deadline may have already passed. The individual arrived in the U.S. on August 14, 2019, meaning that the one-year period for filing certain applications ended on August 14, 2020. This is based on the law [INA § 208(a)(2)(B); 8 U.S.C. § 1158(a)(2)(B)]. Please confirm this right away because missing deadlines can jeopardize a case.

There are also safety concerns mentioned in this report, and resources for safety are available below. The analysis is complete, and answering the 6 follow-up questions below would improve the evaluation.

Federal (Immigration Court)

| Failure to Appear in Removal Proceedings

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 90%

ISSUE

The facts show that if Marisol does not go to her scheduled hearing, she might be ordered to be removed without being present, which means there could be serious legal consequences for not following the rules.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Notice of Hearing: Supported (85% confidence) - The individual must have received proper notice of the scheduled hearing date.
 - Fact: The Notice to Appear was served on August 15, 2019. (85% match)
- Non-Appearence: Supported (85% confidence) - The individual fails to appear at the scheduled hearing.
 - Fact: The next hearing in Marisol's case is scheduled for August 20, 2026. (85% match)
- Consequences of Non-Appearence: Supported (85% confidence) - The court issues a removal order as a result of the individual not attending the hearing.
 - Fact: If Marisol fails to attend the hearing, an order of removal may be entered against her in her absence. (85% match)

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Procedural Requirement (Priority 50): What is the scheduled date and time of Marisol's hearing, and what are the consequences if she does not appear?

CONCLUSION

The three elements needed for support are present (with 85% confidence).

Follow-up Steps

- [] [URGENT] PAST-DUE? Confirm the deadline for: The speaker came to this country on August 14, 2019. (estimated 2020-08-14; INA § 208(a)(2)(B); 8 U.S.C. § 1158(a)(2)(B) (one-year filing deadline)). WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. Asylum applications generally must be filed within one year of arrival in the United States. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. Because this one-year asylum deadline appears to have already passed, you may still be able to apply if an EXCEPTION applies: 'changed circumstances' that materially affect eligibility, or 'extraordinary circumstances' that excuse the late filing (for example serious illness, or ineffective assistance / fraud by a notario or non-lawyer). This exception pathway is governed by INA § 208(a)(2)(D); 8 U.S.C. § 1158(a)(2)(D). Ask an immigration lawyer whether one of these exceptions applies to you — the late deadline may not be the end of your asylum claim.

- [] [URGENT] Confirm the deadline for: The next hearing in Marisol's case is scheduled for August 20, 2026. (estimated 2026-08-20; The hearing date on your Notice to Appear / EOIR hearing notice (8 C.F.R. § 1003.18; INA § 239). Failure to appear can result in an in-absentia removal order.). This is the hearing date printed on your immigration court notice — you must appear. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.
 - Deadline: 2026-08-20
- [] [URGENT] You described being hurt by a spouse who is a U.S. citizen or green-card holder. Federal law (VAWA) may let you apply for immigration status on your own, without their help or knowledge — this is called a VAWA self-petition. Has a lawyer ever talked with you about whether you qualify? [Authority: INA § 204(a)(1); 8 U.S.C. § 1154 (VAWA self-petition)]

- [] [URGENT] What you described — being physically hurt or threatened by a family or household member — may qualify you for an Order for Protection (a court order that can be issued the same day you ask, before any hearing). In Minnesota this is Minn. Stat. § 518B.01; other states have an equivalent. Would you like information about asking the court for one now, separate from any other case? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 518B.01 (Order for Protection; ex parte relief available)]
- [] [URGENT] You said you were the victim of a crime and helped the police. Victims of certain crimes who cooperate with law enforcement may qualify for a U visa (U nonimmigrant status). This needs a certification form (I-918B) signed by the police or prosecutor — has anyone requested one for you? [Authority: INA § 101(a)(15)(U); 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(U) (U nonimmigrant status; Form I-918 Supplement B certification)]
- [] [URGENT] Asylum applications normally must be filed within one year of arriving in the U.S. If your first year has passed — including if someone who was not a real lawyer took your money and never filed — you may still qualify under the 'changed circumstances' or 'extraordinary circumstances' exceptions (fraud by a notario can count). Ask a lawyer about the one-year-bar exceptions. When did you arrive, and did anyone ever actually file an asylum application for you? [Authority: INA § 208(a)(2)(B), (D); 8 U.S.C. § 1158(a)(2)(B), (D) (one-year bar; changed/extraordinary-circumstances exceptions)]
- [] [URGENT] You mentioned working with a Social Security number that is not yours. Working without authorization can normally block a green-card application filed inside the U.S. (the INA § 245(c)(2) bar) — BUT people approved under VAWA are exempt from that bar. A lawyer should review this together with any VAWA option. Have you told a lawyer about this work history?

[Authority: INA § 245(c)(2); 8 U.S.C. § 1255(c)(2) (unauthorized-employment bar; VAWA self-petitioners exempt)]

- [] [URGENT] About the immigration papers (Notice to Appear) you received: did that first notice state the exact TIME, DATE, and PLACE of your court hearing, or were those details missing or sent later? A notice missing those details can matter to your case (it can affect eligibility clocks) — bring the original papers to a lawyer. [Authority: Pereira v. Sessions, 138 S. Ct. 2105 (2018); Niz-Chavez v. Garland, 141 S. Ct. 1474 (2021) (defective Notice to Appear)]

- Procedural Requirement (Priority 84): About the immigration papers (Notice to Appear) you received: did that first notice state the exact TIME, DATE, and PLACE of your court hearing, or were those details missing or sent later? A notice missing those details can matter to your case (it can affect eligibility clocks) — bring the original papers to a lawyer. [Authority: Pereira v. Sessions, 138 S. Ct. 2105 (2018); Niz-Chavez v. Garland, 141 S. Ct. 1474 (2021) (defective Notice to Appear)]

- Procedural Requirement (Priority 88): Asylum applications normally must be filed within one year of arriving in the U.S. If your first year has passed — including if someone who was not a real lawyer took your money and never filed — you may still qualify under the 'changed circumstances' or 'extraordinary circumstances' exceptions (fraud by a notario can count). Ask a lawyer about the one-year-bar exceptions. When did you arrive, and did anyone ever actually file an asylum application for you? [Authority: INA § 208(a)(2)(B), (D); 8 U.S.C. § 1158(a)(2)(B), (D) (one-year bar; changed/extraordinary-circumstances exceptions)]

- Procedural Requirement (Priority 90): What you described — being physically hurt or threatened by a family or household member — may qualify you for an Order for Protection (a court order that can be issued the same day you ask, before any hearing). In Minnesota this is Minn. Stat. § 518B.01; other states have an equivalent. Would you like information about asking the court for one now, separate from any other case? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 518B.01 (Order for Protection; ex parte relief available)]
