□ Deadlines & Time-Sensitive Items

Read this first. Missing a legal deadline can end a case. The dates below are estimates generated automatically — always confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

□ the case is set for April 1st at 9am at halden county court, housing division — DEADLINE MAY HAVE PASSED

- Estimated deadline: 2026-04-01
- Basis: Minn. Stat. § 504B.321 (Minnesota eviction summons/hearing procedure); the hearing date printed on your summons or hearing notice.
- Triggering event: hearing on 2026-04-01
- Jurisdiction: MN
- WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. This is the eviction hearing date printed on your court papers — you must appear; in Minnesota your defenses are raised at this hearing (there is no separate written answer deadline). Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. If this hearing date has already passed, contact the housing court immediately. If a judgment was entered against you, ask about a motion to vacate the judgment and about expungement of the eviction record (Minn. Stat. § 484.014) — missing the hearing does not always end your options.

□ Pursuant to Minnesota law, you have FOURTEEN (14) DAYS from the date of this notice to pay the total amount due in full, OR to vacate and surrender the premises. — DEADLINE MAY HAVE PASSED

- Estimated deadline: 2026-03-17
- Basis: Minn. Stat. § 504B.321, subd. 1a (14-day written notice required before an eviction action for nonpayment of rent); for other Minnesota notice-to-quit periods see Minn. Stat. § 504B.135. The period printed on your notice controls if longer.

- Triggering event: notice posted on 2026-03-03
- Jurisdiction: MN
- WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. Minnesota requires a written notice period before a nonpayment eviction can be filed; the cure/vacate date is computed from the day the notice was given. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. If this notice period has already passed, an eviction case may have been filed — but that is not the end: in Minnesota you can still raise your defenses at the eviction hearing (including paying what is owed to redeem in a nonpayment case, Minn. Stat. § 504B.291). If a judgment was already entered, ask about vacating it and about expungement (Minn. Stat. § 484.014).

□ moved in July 2025 — DEADLINE MAY HAVE PASSED

- Estimated deadline: 2026-07-01
- Basis: INA § 208(a)(2)(B); 8 U.S.C. § 1158(a)(2)(B) (one-year filing deadline)
- Triggering event: entry on 2025-07-01
- Jurisdiction: US
- WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. Asylum applications generally must be filed within one year of arrival in the United States. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. Because this one-year asylum deadline appears to have already passed, you may still be able to apply if an EXCEPTION applies: 'changed circumstances' that materially affect eligibility, or 'extraordinary circumstances' that excuse the late filing (for example serious illness, or ineffective assistance / fraud by a notario or non-lawyer). This exception pathway is governed by INA § 208(a)(2)(D); 8 U.S.C. § 1158(a)(2)(D). Ask an immigration lawyer whether one of these exceptions applies to you — the late deadline may not be the end of your asylum claim.

⚠ marcus has been coughing a lot since the mold problem.

- Estimated deadline: date unclear — this time-sensitive item needs an exact date.
- Triggering event: incident on 2025-12-01
- Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

⚠ the HEAT went out from January 18 to 23.
