

□ Your Safety Comes First

Some of what you shared suggests you may be dealing with a situation that could put your safety at risk. You are not alone, and help is available right now — you do not need a lawyer or any money to reach it.

If you are in immediate danger, call 911.

You can reach trained, confidential help any time:

- Stalking Prevention, Awareness, and Resource Center (SPARC) (<https://www.stalkingawareness.org>)
- National Immigrant Women's Advocacy Project (<https://niwaplibrary.wcl.american.edu>)
- Immigration Advocates Network (<https://www.immigrationadvocates.org>)
- Text the Crisis Text Line: text HOME to 741741 (open 24/7, for any kind of crisis)

Asking a court to protect you. If someone has hurt you or made you afraid, you can ask a court for an Order for Protection (sometimes called a restraining order). It is a free request you can make yourself: the court clerk's office or a local advocate can give you the forms and walk you through them, often the same day. A domestic violence advocate (reachable through the hotline above) can help you fill them out and can go with you.

You get to decide what feels safe for you. The steps above are here whenever you are ready.

□ Deadlines & Time-Sensitive Items

General

| Documentation and Evidence

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 90%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/R9HuNkpWm24qMFuntuug6RB>

ISSUE

Documenting evidence—like saved text messages and records of any violent incidents—is very important in custody disputes (arguments over who gets to take care of children) and can help make your case stronger.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

CONCLUSION

It seems there was an issue with the text provided. Please provide the legal text you'd like rewritten.

| Potential Criminal Charges

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 80%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/RB55623E4A23b41B4feC45bb>

ISSUE

The act of grabbing someone's arm and causing bruising could be considered assault (an unlawful act causing physical harm) and should be reported so that Corey can be held responsible for what he did.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Potential Criminal Charges' has not been explored with fact mappings

| Supervised Visitation Arrangement

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 75%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/R24YN1aRTJ9uZ8QVvLjK21>

ISSUE

Considering how the violent incidents have affected the children emotionally, the custody plans should focus on ensuring their safety by including supervision (monitoring by a responsible person).

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Supervised Visitation Arrangement' has not been explored with fact mappings

| Child Support Responsibilities

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 60%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/R9JcsdtYN2CUc5CfCTULHYC>

ISSUE

It's important to understand child support arrangements during discussions about custody (which is who the child will live with and how decisions about them are made), especially if these arrangements change because of the case.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Child Support Responsibilities' has not been explored with fact mappings
