General

| Retaliatory Behavior Extending Beyond Rent Issues

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 85%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/R8RfDzMtuMPdmNTonmhBxu>

ISSUE

If a tenant reports health problems and then faces retaliation (punishment) for doing so, this can strengthen their case under laws that protect against retaliatory eviction (being forced out of a home unfairly).

This means that the protections available to the tenant are broader in such situations.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Retaliatory Behavior Extending Beyond Rent Issues' has not been explored with fact mappings

CONCLUSION

It seems there was an issue with the text provided. Please provide the legal text you'd like rewritten.

| Negligence in Maintaining Habitability

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 80%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/R7nqxxlAfhYqqSA2UQ5UxpX>

ISSUE

The growing mold problem and how it affects Marcus's asthma might be a failure on the landlord's part to keep the rental property livable (habitable means suitable for people to live in).

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

CONCLUSION

It seems there was an issue with the text provided. Please provide the legal text you'd like rewritten.

| Tenant's Right to a Safe and Healthy Environment

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 80%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/RBpYE6Y5CAH0m6srdnClfZz>

ISSUE

This is closely related to the Breach of Implied Warranty of Habitability (an expectation that rental homes are safe and livable) and Failure to Provide Habitable Living Conditions (not meeting basic health and safety standards). This supports the tenant's claims that the landlord's lack of action violates legal standards for housing conditions.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

CONCLUSION

It seems there was an issue with the text provided. Please provide the legal text you'd like rewritten.

Possibility of Medical Necessity Defense

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 75%

ISSUE

Because the child has a medical condition (asthma) that could get worse due to mold, this may make a stronger case for not paying rent until the mold problem is properly fixed.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Possibility of Medical Necessity Defense' has not been explored with fact mappings

CONCLUSION

It seems there was an issue with the text provided. Please provide the legal text you'd like rewritten.

Possible Discrimination in Rental Practices

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 75%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/R9ED899sCUzn9FIu11WRt4B>

ISSUE

Actions taken against tenants who have children, particularly those dealing with health problems that the landlord is ignoring, can suggest that discriminatory practices (unfair treatment based on certain characteristics) are occurring.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Possible Discrimination in Rental Practices' has not been explored with fact mappings
- Procedural Requirement (Priority 50): Fair Housing Act complaints must generally be filed within 1 year of the alleged discriminatory practice, necessitating attention to filing deadlines to preserve rights.

CONCLUSION

It seems there was an issue with the text provided. Please provide the legal text you'd like rewritten.

| Potential Unlawful Disruption of Utility Services

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 70%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/RDK1QEdQg1T8B5HQqMK2pZN>

ISSUE

If the heating in a rental property is not working, it can be seen as a failure to meet the implied warranty of habitability (a legal guarantee that a rental property is livable). This situation can affect the tenant's legal rights in the case.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Potential Unlawful Disruption of Utility Services' has not been explored with fact mappings

CONCLUSION

It seems there was an issue with the text provided. Please provide the legal text you'd like rewritten.

| Lack of Documentation for Additional Fees

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 65%

ISSUE

Without proof for the extra fee, it raises concerns about how the landlord conducts business and whether other charges could be unfair or illegal. This could affect the landlord's credibility in any claims they make.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

Failure to Provide Habitable Living Conditions

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 90%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/RDNOqfCVAhPu7lEHc6go0cv>

ISSUE

The landlord's failure to fix the mold and heating problems, which impact the tenant's quality of life and health, backs a complaint about not providing a livable home.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Tenant's Report of Issues: Supported (85% confidence) - The tenant must have reported the issues to the landlord.
 - Fact: The person has texts from November 12 and December 2 about the mold. (85% match)

Retaliatory Eviction

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 80%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/R9wMn80MhrS9iqfKdQdH1A3>

ISSUE

The landlord's efforts to collect unpaid rent and give a notice to move out after the tenant complained about mold and heating problems indicate that the landlord might be acting out of retaliation (acting against someone for reporting an issue).

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Adverse Action by Landlord: Supported (85% confidence) - The landlord must have taken an adverse action against the tenant, such as eviction or rent increase, shortly after the protected activity.

- Fact: The landlord is trying to push the person out early. (85% match)
- Fact: The person wanted the mold fixed before paying. (85% match)
- Fact: The 14-day notice was taped to the door on March 3. (81% match)
- Fact: The landlord is trying to push the person out early. (77% match)
- Protected Activity: Supported (85% confidence) - The tenant must have engaged in a legally protected activity, such as reporting housing code violations.
 - Fact: The person called the city on February 20 to report the mold and heat issue. (85% match)
 - Fact: The person called the city on February 20 to report the mold and heat issue. (85% match)
 - Fact: The person called the city on February 20 to report the mold and heat issue. (77% match)
- Temporal Proximity: Supported (85% confidence) - There must be a close temporal connection between the protected activity and the landlord's adverse action.
 - Fact: The person is seeking help before April 1st. (81% match)
 - Fact: The person was given 14 days to pay the amount or move out. (85% match)
 - Fact: The 14-day notice was taped to the door on March 3. (77% match)

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unsupported Element (Priority 80): Element 'Protected Activity' is not yet supported by any facts
 - Element: Protected Activity
- Procedural Requirement (Priority 50): Need to establish that the claim is within the jurisdiction, as some states have specific laws addressing retaliatory eviction which require adherence to local statutes.
