

MINNESOTA UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE PROGRAM
Minnesota Department of Employment and Economic Development
P.O. Box 4629, St. Paul, MN 55101-4629

DETERMINATION OF INELIGIBILITY

Date of sending: May 29, 2026
Applicant: RENATA SIKORSKI
Applicant ID: XXX-XX-8841
Effective date of benefit account: May 17, 2026
Employer: CEDARBROOK CARE CENTER LLC, St. Paul, MN

ISSUE: Discharge - Employment Misconduct

DETERMINATION:

The applicant was discharged from employment with CEDARBROOK CARE CENTER LLC on May 15, 2026. Information provided by the employer states the applicant was discharged for excessive absenteeism after receiving prior warnings.

Minnesota law provides that an applicant who was discharged from employment because of employment misconduct is ineligible for unemployment benefits. Employment misconduct means any intentional, negligent, or indifferent conduct that is a serious violation of the standards of behavior the employer has the right to reasonably expect.

It is determined that the applicant was discharged because of employment misconduct. The applicant is INELIGIBLE for unemployment benefits beginning May 17, 2026, and until subsequent earnings requirements are met.

APPEAL RIGHTS:

This determination will become FINAL unless an appeal is filed within 45 CALENDAR DAYS after the date of sending shown above. The appeal period begins on the date of sending and cannot be extended. An appeal may be filed online at www.uimn.org, by mail, or by fax. If you file an appeal, you should CONTINUE TO SUBMIT BENEFIT PAYMENT REQUESTS for each week you are unemployed. You can only be paid for weeks you have requested.

If an appeal is filed, a hearing will be scheduled before an unemployment law judge.