

□ Your Safety Comes First

Some of what you shared suggests you may be dealing with a situation that could put your safety at risk. You are not alone, and help is available right now — you do not need a lawyer or any money to reach it.

If you are in immediate danger, call 911.

You can reach trained, confidential help any time:

- Call or text 988 — the Suicide & Crisis Lifeline (open 24/7)
- Text the Crisis Text Line: text HOME to 741741 (open 24/7, for any kind of crisis)

You get to decide what feels safe for you. The steps above are here whenever you are ready.

□ Deadlines & Time-Sensitive Items

Read this first. Missing a legal deadline can end a case. The dates below are estimates generated automatically — always confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

□ On April 6, I received an email saying no lifting up to 50 pounds is an essential function. — DEADLINE MAY HAVE PASSED

- Estimated deadline: 2026-05-06
- Basis: Minn. Stat. § 518.12 (respondent's answer due 30 days after service of the petition)
- Triggering event: service on 2026-04-06
- Jurisdiction: MN
- WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. In a Minnesota dissolution/family matter the answer is generally due 30 days after you were served with the petition. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. If more than 30 days have passed since you were served and you have not answered, contact the court right away — a default could be entered against you. Ask about filing a late answer or moving to set aside a default (Minn. R. Civ. P. 60.02); courts can excuse a late response for good reason.

□ They put me on unpaid leave on April 6. — DEADLINE MAY HAVE PASSED

Executive Summary

This initial review found 13 possible legal issues related to Federal and Minnesota law. The most strongly supported issues are Disability Discrimination (unfair treatment due to a person's disability), Retaliation (punishment for asserting one's rights), and Failure to Accommodate (not providing necessary changes for someone with a disability).

IMPORTANT: At least one important deadline may have already passed. On April 6, I received an email indicating that "no lifting up to 50 pounds" is considered an essential job function (calculated due date is May 6, 2026) [Minn. Stat. § 518.12 (the timed response to the petition is due 30 days after it was served)]. Please check this right away, as missing deadlines can dismiss a case. There were also safety concerns noted in this situation; see the safety resources listed below. The analysis is complete, and there are 9 follow-up questions below that could improve the assessment.

Federal

| Failure to Provide FMLA Leave

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 75%

ISSUE

Gideon did not provide any information about FMLA (Family and Medical Leave Act) and was placed on unpaid leave without any signs that the employer communicated or thought about his FMLA rights. This raises questions about what the employer is required to do under the Family and Medical Leave Act.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Eligible Employee: Unsupported - The employee must be eligible for FMLA leave (worked for the employer for 12 months and 1,250 hours).
- Serious Health Condition: Unsupported - The employee must have a qualifying serious health condition that requires leave.
- Employer's Obligation: Unsupported - The employer must provide the necessary paperwork and inform the employee about FMLA rights.
- Notification: Supported (85% confidence) - The employer must be notified of the need for FMLA leave.
 - Fact: On April 6, I received an email saying no lifting up to 50 pounds is an essential function. (85% match)

- [] [URGENT] PAST-DUE? Confirm the deadline for: On April 6, I received an email saying no lifting up to 50 pounds is an essential function. (estimated 2026-05-06; Minn. Stat. § 518.12 (respondent's answer due 30 days after service of the petition)). WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. In a Minnesota dissolution/family matter the answer is generally due 30 days after you were served with the petition. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. If more than 30 days have passed since you were served and you have not answered, contact the court right away — a default could be entered against you. Ask about filing a late answer or moving to set aside a default (Minn. R. Civ. P. 60.02); courts can excuse a late response for good reason.
