

□ Your Safety Comes First

Some of what you shared suggests you may be dealing with a situation that could put your safety at risk. You are not alone, and help is available right now — you do not need a lawyer or any money to reach it.

If you are in immediate danger, call 911.

You can reach trained, confidential help any time:

- National Domestic Violence Hotline — call 1-800-799-7233, or text START to 88788 (<https://www.thehotline.org>)
- National Dating Abuse Helpline — call 1-866-331-9474, or text LOVEIS to 22522
- Stalking Prevention, Awareness, and Resource Center (SPARC) (<https://www.stalkingawareness.org>)
- Text the Crisis Text Line: text HOME to 741741 (open 24/7, for any kind of crisis)
- A safety plan can help you prepare for emergencies. The National DV Hotline can help create one.

Asking a court to protect you. If someone has hurt you or made you afraid, you can ask a court for an Order for Protection (sometimes called a restraining order). It is a free request you can make yourself: the court clerk's office or a local advocate can give you the forms and walk you through them, often the same day. A domestic violence advocate (reachable through the hotline above)

can help you fill them out and can go with you.

You get to decide what feels safe for you. The steps above are here whenever you are ready.
