Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 70%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/R9ED899sCUzn9FIu11WRt4B>

ISSUE

Given the nature of the tenant's circumstances with a child, there may be implications under fair housing laws that protect families from unfair eviction practices. This creates potential cross-practice legal implications.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Discrimination Claims Related to Family Status' has not been explored with fact mappings

Health Impact from Mold Exposure

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 80%

ISSUE

The mold issue is connected to Marcus's worsening health symptoms. This could invoke local and state health codes as well as tenancy laws related to maintaining safe living conditions. Legal experts should assess compliance with these health regulations.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Procedural Requirement (Priority 50): Failure to document communication with the landlord regarding health issues and mold presence prior to any claims.

| Housing Discrimination

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 60%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/R9SqqJ7oW7XF52TFPoEbPbN>

ISSUE

If the tenant feels that their status as a mother with a child (especially with health conditions) is being leveraged against them unfairly by the landlord, this could represent a form of discrimination.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Housing Discrimination' has not been explored with fact mappings

| Implied Warranty of Habitability

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 90%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/RBIId9f3jW4zEqooPvShqi6Q>

ISSUE

The conditions described (mold and heat issues) could signal a breach of the implied warranty of habitability, which requires landlords to maintain rental properties to be fit for human habitation.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Implied Warranty of Habitability' has not been explored with fact mappings

- Procedural Requirement (Priority 50): Lack of evidence showing that tenant notified landlord of unsafe conditions and allowed time for rectification.

CONCLUSION

| Lack of Proper Notice

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 85%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/RB3FT9lFNQIjRnFIueLgCa7>

ISSUE

The method of serving legal documents (taping to the door) and the contents of the notice may not meet statutory requirements, which can invalidate the claims made by the landlord.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

CONCLUSION

No elements defined

Lack of Written Receipts/Records of Payments

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 75%

ISSUE

The absence of receipts may eliminate clear evidence regarding payments made by the tenant, creating potential for misunderstanding and complicating the eviction claim. Legal implications regarding cash transactions without documentation should be explored.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.
