Executive Summary

This intake identified 17 possible legal problems in Halden County, State. The main issues that have strong support are Breach of Implied Warranty of Habitability (which means a landlord isn't keeping the rental in livable condition), Potential Retaliatory Action for Reporting Housing Codes Violations (meaning a landlord might try to take revenge on a tenant for reporting safety issues), and Negligence (which involves someone failing to take reasonable care that leads to harm).

IMPORTANT: It seems at least one deadline has already passed. The case is scheduled for April 1st at 9am at Halden County Court, Housing Division (date calculated as 2026-04-01). Please check this right away against the court notice, summons, hearing notice, or order you have (make sure the date matches the document). Missing deadlines can lead to losing the case. There were also some safety concerns mentioned in this situation; see the safety resources listed below. The analysis is about 75% complete; answering the 11 follow-up questions below would improve the assessment.

General

Potential Retaliatory Action for Reporting Housing Codes Violations

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 90%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/RDsDXHKUsZoJfz87jnz7zjj>

ISSUE

The eviction seems to be strongly connected to the reports made by the person being evicted about mold and heating problems. This suggests there should be an investigation into whether the eviction was done as retaliation (punishment) for those complaints.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

CONCLUSION

It seems there is no information to rewrite. Please provide text for me to assist you with.

| Negligence

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 80%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/R7nqxxlAfhYqqSA2UQ5UxpX>

ISSUE

The landlord's failure to respond to requests for maintenance (problems that need fixing) and his comment that minimizes (makes less serious) the mold issue might show that he is not taking proper care of the property.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Negligence' has not been explored with fact mappings
- Procedural Requirement (Priority 50): What is the relevant statute of limitations for filing a negligence claim against the landlord regarding the mold issue?

Potential Landlord Negligence

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 80%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/RC8bnzMEhgjx01vV9ngLiR3>

ISSUE

The landlord not taking action about the mold could lead to responsibility for any health problems that the responder's son faces, particularly because the doctor has noted that he has asthma.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

| Failure to Mitigate Damages

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 65%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/R8ON9C39HUAjJYhP2BPONKP>

ISSUE

This situation could affect the landlord's (the person who owns the property) claims of a serious lease violation (breaking the rules of the rental agreement) if it demonstrates a repeated pattern of neglect (failure to take care of responsibilities) that caused the tenant (the person renting the property) to stop paying rent.

Breach of Implied Warranty of Habitability

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 95%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/RBRosNDPt8cNUuRnoPqYufN>

ISSUE

Mold and not providing enough heat are both violations of the implied warranty of habitability (a legal promise that rental properties must be safe and livable). Landlords are expected to keep their properties in good condition for tenants.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Uninhabitable Conditions: Supported (85% confidence) - The rental unit must have conditions that make it uninhabitable, such as mold or lack of heat.
 - Fact: A city inspector visited Danika on February 25, 2026 regarding the mold and heat issue. (85% match)
 - Fact: The landlord has been ignoring the mold in the bathroom ceiling since October. (85% match)
 - Fact: Danika stated that Marcus was sick during the heat outage. (85% match)

- Landlord's Responsibility: Supported (85% confidence) - The landlord must be shown as responsible for addressing and repairing these conditions.
 - Fact: The landlord has been ignoring the mold in the bathroom ceiling since October. (85% match)
 - Fact: Wendell sent a repair person on January 23, 2026. (85% match)
 - Fact: Wendell acknowledged he would address the mold issue when possible. (81% match)
- Tenant's Notice: Supported (85% confidence) - The tenant must have notified the landlord of these conditions, allowing a reasonable time for repair.
 - Fact: Danika called the emergency maintenance line four times with no response. (85% match)
 - Fact: Wendell instructed Danika to call the emergency maintenance line for the heat issue. (81% match)
 - Fact: Danika reported a mold issue in the bathroom ceiling on November 12, 2025. (85% match)

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

| Material Lease Violation

Claim Type: identified | Confidence: 40%

ISSUE

Danika has broken the rules of her lease (a legal agreement between a landlord and tenant) by not paying her rent and not keeping the property in good condition.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Lease Agreement Terms: Supported (85% confidence) - There exists a signed lease agreement outlining responsibilities for payment and maintenance.
 - Fact: The eviction action is based on nonpayment of rent and material violation of lease terms. (81% match)

- Fact: The 14-day notice was taped to the door on March 3. (85% match)
- Failure to Pay Rent: Supported (85% confidence) - The tenant failed to pay the agreed rent amount without following the appropriate legal processes.
 - Fact: Danika is paying $900 of the $1200 rent by money order this month and withholding $300. (85% match)
 - Fact: Eviction proceedings may commence if Danika Osgood fails to pay or vacate. (85% match)
 - Fact: Danika Osgood owes a total of $1,250.00 as of the date of the summons. (85% match)
 - Fact: The 14-day notice was taped to the door on March 3. (81% match)
 - Fact: The eviction action is based on nonpayment of rent and material violation of lease terms. (85% match)

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unsupported Element (Priority 40): Element 'Lease Agreement Terms' is not yet supported by any facts
 - Element: Lease Agreement Terms
- Unsupported Element (Priority 40): Element 'Failure to Pay Rent' is not yet supported by any facts
 - Element: Failure to Pay Rent
- Procedural Requirement (Priority 50): What are the specific lease terms that were violated, and is there a grace period in the lease for addressing such violations?

CONCLUSION

The statement "2 of 2 elements supported (85% confidence)" suggests that there are two specific elements or factors being evaluated, and both of them are confirmed or backed by evidence. The term "85% confidence" indicates that there is a high level of certainty (85%) in this conclusion, meaning that if this analysis were done multiple times, it would likely show similar support for these two elements most of the time.

Retaliatory Eviction

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 40%

ISSUE

The timing and situation surrounding the eviction action after Danika complained about mold and other problems might indicate that it is an act of retaliation (punishing someone for speaking out).

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Timing of Eviction: Unsupported - The eviction occurs soon after the complaints were made, suggesting a retaliatory motive.
- Tenant's Complaints: Supported (70% confidence) - The tenant had made complaints regarding the living conditions.
 - Fact: Fact #863 (70% match)
- Absence of Valid Grounds: Unsupported - The eviction lacks legitimate or lawful grounds when considering the tenant's rights.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unsupported Element (Priority 40): Element 'Timing of Eviction' is not yet supported by any facts
 - Element: Timing of Eviction
- Unsupported Element (Priority 40): Element 'Absence of Valid Grounds' is not yet supported by any facts

- Procedural Requirement (Priority 50): What is the timeline for filing a claim of retaliatory eviction after the landlord's action?

CONCLUSION

One out of three elements was backed up (23% certainty).

| Withholding Rent

Claim Type: identified | Confidence: 40%

ISSUE

Danika is choosing not to pay her rent because she has ongoing problems with mold in her home. She believes this mold is harmful to her son's health.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Legitimate Concerns: Supported (85% confidence) - The tenant must have legitimate reasons for withholding rent, such as ongoing health hazards.
 - Fact: The landlord responded to the mold issue saying it 'probably needs bleach' and 'I'll get to it when I can, slow season.' (85% match)
 - Fact: Danika has withheld $300 until the mold is fixed. (85% match)
 - Fact: The responder believes the mold is causing Marcus's increased coughing. (71% match)
 - Fact: Wendell said the mold probably just needs cleaning with bleach. (77% match)
 - Fact: Marcus has asthma and has been coughing worse since December. (81% match)

- Notification to Landlord: Supported (85% confidence) - The tenant must adequately notify the landlord of the issues that have prompted the withholding of rent.
 - Fact: The responder sent texts to the landlord on November 12 and December 2 regarding the mold. (85% match)

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Procedural Requirement (Priority 50): What documentation or evidence do you have to support the withholding of rent due to unresolved mold issues?

CONCLUSION

The statement "2 of 2 elements supported (85% confidence)" suggests that there are two specific elements or factors being evaluated, and both of them are confirmed or backed by evidence. The term "85% confidence" indicates that there is a high level of certainty (85%) in this conclusion, meaning that if this analysis were done multiple times, it would likely show similar support for these two elements most of the time.
