

□ Your Safety Comes First

Some of what you shared suggests you may be dealing with a situation that could put your safety at risk. You are not alone, and help is available right now — you do not need a lawyer or any money to reach it.

If you are in immediate danger, call 911.

You can reach trained, confidential help any time:

- National Domestic Violence Hotline — call 1-800-799-7233, or text START to 88788 (<https://www.thehotline.org>)
- National Dating Abuse Helpline — call 1-866-331-9474, or text LOVEIS to 22522
- National Immigrant Women's Advocacy Project (<https://niwaplibrary.wcl.american.edu>)
- Immigration Advocates Network (<https://www.immigrationadvocates.org>)
- Text the Crisis Text Line: text HOME to 741741 (open 24/7, for any kind of crisis)
- A safety plan can help you prepare for emergencies. The National DV Hotline can help create one.

Asking a court to protect you. If someone has hurt you or made you afraid, you can ask a court for an Order for Protection (sometimes called a restraining order). It is a free request you can make yourself: the court clerk's office or a local advocate can give you the forms and walk you through them, often the same day. A domestic violence advocate (reachable through the hotline above) can help you fill them out and can go with you.

You get to decide what feels safe for you. The steps above are here whenever you are ready.

□ Deadlines & Time-Sensitive Items

Read this first. Missing a legal deadline can end a case. The dates below are estimates generated automatically — always confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

□ I came to this country on August 14, 2019. — DEADLINE MAY HAVE PASSED

- Estimated deadline: 2020-08-14
- Basis: INA § 208(a)(2)(B); 8 U.S.C. § 1158(a)(2)(B) (one-year filing deadline)
- Triggering event: entry on 2019-08-14
- WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. Asylum applications generally must be filed within one year of arrival in the United States. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. Because this one-year asylum deadline appears to have already passed, you may still be able to apply if an EXCEPTION applies: 'changed circumstances' that materially affect eligibility, or 'extraordinary circumstances' that excuse the late filing (for example serious illness, or ineffective assistance / fraud by a notario or non-lawyer). This exception pathway is governed by INA § 208(a)(2)(D); 8 U.S.C. § 1158(a)(2)(D). Ask an immigration lawyer whether one of these exceptions applies to you — the late deadline may not be the end of your asylum claim.

⚠ The court hearing is scheduled for August 20, 2026.

- Estimated deadline: 2026-08-20
 - Basis: The hearing date on your Notice to Appear / EOIR hearing notice (8 C.F.R. § 1003.18; INA § 239). Failure to appear can result in an in-absentia removal order.
 - Triggering event: hearing on 2026-08-20
 - Jurisdiction: MN
 - This is the hearing date printed on your immigration court notice — you must appear. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

⚠ Danilo hit me again on March 15 this year.

- Estimated deadline: date unclear — this time-sensitive item needs an exact date.
 - Triggering event: incident on 2026-03-15
 - Jurisdiction: MN
 - Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

Executive Summary

This intake highlighted 10 possible legal issues in Federal, Minnesota. The issues that are most strongly supported include Employment and Social Security Issues (related to work and benefits), Child Custody and Support Issues (regarding the care and financial support of children), and Child Custody Claims (asserting rights over child custody). IMPORTANT: At least one deadline seems to have already passed — I came to this country on August 14, 2019. (calculated as 2020-08-14) [INA § 208(a)(2)(B); 8 U.S.C. § 1158(a)(2)(B) (this is a one-year deadline for filing)]. Please verify this right away, as missing deadlines can affect the outcome of a case. There are also safety concerns mentioned in this narrative; please see the safety resources below. The analysis is 75% complete; answering the 13 follow-up questions below would improve the assessment.

| In-absentia Removal Claim

Claim Type: identified | Confidence: 10%

ISSUE

The facts show that if Marisol does not go to the scheduled immigration hearing, she could be ordered to be removed (kicked out) of the country even though she was not there.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Procedural Requirement (Priority 50): What is the date of the scheduled immigration hearing, and have you received any notices regarding it?

General

| Employment and Social Security Issue

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 85%

ISSUE

Using someone else's social security number can cause more legal problems, particularly in her immigration case and any related job law issues.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Procedural Requirement (Priority 50): Do you have any records or documentation related to your use of someone else's social security number, and have you sought legal advice regarding this matter?

| Child Custody and Support Issue

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 70%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/RCEchldQJ7ND4j4oheflEg>

ISSUE

It's important for her to understand her legal rights regarding her child's custody (who has the right to make decisions about the child's care) and support obligations (financial responsibilities for the child's needs). This understanding is crucial for her stability as a parent.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

| Child Custody Claim

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 70%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/RZm4akQHkbU4y4YWTSSjrO>

ISSUE

Marisol's immigration situation, her ongoing criminal case, and her child's situation require her to be aware of custody options. This is particularly important if she needs to deal with removal proceedings (the legal process of removing someone from the country) or to speak up for her son's welfare.

RULE

Abuse History Documentation Claim

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 30%

ISSUE

Documenting past abuse will help support her claims as a victim and may also impact her immigration case. This could make her eligible for protections or assistance because of her status as a victim of domestic violence.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Abuse History Documentation Claim' has not been explored with fact mappings

Asylum Case Claim

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 20%

ISSUE

Since Rigoberto charged her a fee and said he would file her asylum application, there may be big problems with how well she was represented (meaning how effectively her case was handled) and the status of her application. This could affect her ongoing immigration proceedings (the legal processes concerning her ability to stay in the country).

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Procedural Requirement (Priority 50): What specific actions did Rigoberto take with respect to your asylum application, and have you confirmed the status of this application?

| Domestic Violence Claim

Claim Type: identified | Confidence: 10%

ISSUE

Marisol says that Danilo struck her several times, and there is a police report that records the incident as domestic assault (a type of violence between people in a relationship).

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Procedural Requirement (Priority 50): Have you reported the domestic violence incidents to law enforcement, and are there any records of police involvement or charges filed?

CONCLUSION

(estimated 2026-08-20; The hearing date on your Notice to Appear / EOIR hearing notice (8 C.F.R. § 1003.18; INA § 239). Failure to appear can result in an in-absentia removal order.). This is the hearing date printed on your immigration court notice — you must appear. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

- Deadline: 2026-08-20

- [] [URGENT] You described being hurt by a spouse who is a U.S. citizen or green-card holder. Federal law (VAWA) may let you apply for immigration status on your own, without their help or knowledge — this is called a VAWA self-petition. Has a lawyer ever talked with you about whether you qualify? [Authority: INA § 204(a)(1); 8 U.S.C. § 1154 (VAWA self-petition)]

- [] [URGENT] What you described — being physically hurt or threatened by a family or household member — may qualify you for an Order for Protection (a court order that can be issued the same day you ask, before any hearing). In Minnesota this is Minn. Stat. § 518B.01; other states have an equivalent. Would you like information about asking the court for one now, separate from any other case? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 518B.01 (Order for Protection; ex parte relief available)]
- [] [URGENT] You said you were the victim of a crime and helped the police. Victims of certain crimes who cooperate with law enforcement may qualify for a U visa (U nonimmigrant status). This needs a certification form (I-918B) signed by the police or prosecutor — has anyone requested one for you? [Authority: INA § 101(a)(15)(U); 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(U) (U nonimmigrant status; Form I-918 Supplement B certification)]
- [] [URGENT] Asylum applications normally must be filed within one year of arriving in the U.S. If your first year has passed — including if someone who was not a real lawyer took your money and never filed — you may still qualify under the 'changed circumstances' or 'extraordinary circumstances' exceptions (fraud by a notario can count). Ask a lawyer about the one-year-bar exceptions. When did you arrive, and did anyone ever actually file an asylum application for you? [Authority: INA § 208(a)(2)(B), (D); 8 U.S.C. § 1158(a)(2)(B), (D) (one-year bar; changed/extraordinary-circumstances exceptions)]
- [] [URGENT] You mentioned working with a Social Security number that is not yours. Working without authorization can normally block a green-card application filed inside the U.S. (the INA § 245(c)(2) bar) — BUT people approved under VAWA are exempt from that bar. A lawyer should review this together with any VAWA option. Have you told a lawyer about this work history? [Authority: INA § 245(c)(2); 8 U.S.C. § 1255(c)(2) (unauthorized-employment bar; VAWA self-petitioners exempt)]

- [] [URGENT] About the immigration papers (Notice to Appear) you received: did that first notice state the exact TIME, DATE, and PLACE of your court hearing, or were those details missing or sent later?
