□ Deadlines & Time-Sensitive Items

Read this first. Missing a legal deadline can end a case. The dates below are estimates generated automatically — always confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

□ the case is set for April 1st at 9am at halden county court, housing division — DEADLINE MAY HAVE PASSED

- Estimated deadline: 2026-04-01
- Basis: Minn. Stat. § 504B.321 (Minnesota eviction summons/hearing procedure); the hearing date printed on your summons or hearing notice.
- Triggering event: hearing on 2026-04-01
- Jurisdiction: MN
- WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. This is the eviction hearing date printed on your court papers — you must appear; in Minnesota your defenses are raised at this hearing (there is no separate written answer deadline). Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. If this hearing date has already passed, contact the housing court immediately. If a judgment was entered against you, ask about a motion to vacate the judgment and about expungement of the eviction record (Minn. Stat. § 484.014) — missing the hearing does not always end your options.

□ the 14-day notice was taped to the door on March 3, 2026 — DEADLINE MAY HAVE PASSED

- Estimated deadline: 2026-03-17
- Basis: Minn. Stat. § 504B.321, subd. 1a (14-day written notice required before an eviction action for nonpayment of rent); for other Minnesota notice-to-quit periods see Minn. Stat. § 504B.135. The period printed on your notice controls if longer.
- Triggering event: notice posted on 2026-03-03
- Jurisdiction: MN

- WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. Minnesota requires a written notice period before a nonpayment eviction can be filed; the cure/vacate date is computed from the day the notice was given. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. If this notice period has already passed, an eviction case may have been filed — but that is not the end: in Minnesota you can still raise your defenses at the eviction hearing (including paying what is owed to redeem in a nonpayment case, Minn. Stat. § 504B.291). If a judgment was already entered, ask about vacating it and about expungement (Minn. Stat. § 484.014).

□ the summons was issued on March 18, 2026 — DEADLINE MAY HAVE PASSED

- Estimated deadline: 2026-03-25
- Basis: Minn. Stat. § 504B.321
- Triggering event: served on 2026-03-18
- Jurisdiction: MN
- WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. Minnesota eviction hearings are typically held 7-14 days after the summons issues, so your hearing could be as early as this date. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. If this hearing window has already passed, contact the housing court immediately. If a judgment was entered against you, ask about a motion to vacate the judgment and about expungement of the eviction record (Minn. Stat. § 484.014).

- Deadline: 2026-03-25

- [] [URGENT] You reported problems to the city (or an inspector cited your landlord) shortly before the eviction steps started. If a landlord moves to evict soon after a tenant reports code violations, the law may presume retaliation — in Minnesota, Minn. Stat. § 504B.285/§ 504B.441; other states have an equivalent. How soon after your report did the eviction notice arrive? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 504B.285, subd. 2; § 504B.441 (retaliation defense/penalties)]
- [] [URGENT] You mentioned holding back rent because the landlord is ignoring repairs. Withholding on your own can be used against you in an eviction — but there is a legal way to do it: in Minnesota you can deposit the rent with the court (rent escrow, Minn. Stat. § 504B.385) and ask the court to order repairs; other states have an equivalent. Have you asked the court about depositing your rent instead of just holding it back? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 504B.385 (rent escrow); § 504B.425 (remedies); § 504B.161 (covenants of habitability)]
- [] [URGENT] You said the court papers (summons) were just TAPED to your door. In Minnesota a summons can be posted like that only if the landlord first tried to hand it to you in person and could not find you, and then also mailed you a copy (Minn. Stat. § 504B.331). If those steps were skipped, the service may be defective and can be challenged. Were you ever handed the papers in person, or did anyone mail you a copy? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 504B.331 (eviction summons service; posting/'nail-and-mail' allowed only after diligent attempts at personal service and if the tenant cannot be found, plus mailing)]
- [] [URGENT] You mentioned paying extra money (like a cash pet deposit) with no receipt. Deposits are regulated — in Minnesota the landlord must account for them, pay interest, and return them with an itemized statement (Minn. Stat. § 504B.178); other states have an equivalent. A cash payment with no receipt can still count. How much did you pay, when, and do you have any proof (texts, witnesses, bank withdrawal)? [Authority: Minn. Stat. §

504B.178 (security deposits: receipt, interest, return); § 504B.172]

- [] [URGENT] Your notice appears to give a vague reason (like a 'material lease violation' box with no specifics). A notice usually must state the specific grounds so you can respond — a vague or defective notice can be challenged. What exactly does the notice say, and does it list any specific violation, amount, or cure period? [Authority: State eviction-notice content requirements (e.g., Minn. Stat. § 504B.321; the notice must state the specific grounds)]
