

□ Your Safety Comes First

Some of what you shared suggests you may be dealing with a situation that could put your safety at risk. You are not alone, and help is available right now — you do not need a lawyer or any money to reach it.

If you are in immediate danger, call 911.

You can reach trained, confidential help any time:

- National Domestic Violence Hotline — call 1-800-799-7233, or text START to 88788 (<https://www.thehotline.org>)
- National Dating Abuse Helpline — call 1-866-331-9474, or text LOVEIS to 22522
- Eldercare Locator — call 1-800-677-1116 (<https://eldercare.acl.gov>)
- Adult Protective Services — call Contact your local APS agency
- Stalking Prevention, Awareness, and Resource Center (SPARC) (<https://www.stalkingawareness.org>)
- Text the Crisis Text Line: text HOME to 741741 (open 24/7, for any kind of crisis)
- A safety plan can help you prepare for emergencies. The National DV Hotline can help create one.

Asking a court to protect you. If someone has hurt you or made you afraid, you can ask a court for an Order for Protection (sometimes called a restraining order). It is a free request you can make yourself: the court clerk's office or a local advocate can give you the forms and walk you through them, often the same day. A domestic violence advocate (reachable through the hotline above) can help you fill them out and can go with you.

You get to decide what feels safe for you. The steps above are here whenever you are ready.

Executive Summary

This intake revealed 13 possible legal problems in Minnesota. The most supported issues are Elder Abuse - Financial Exploitation (when someone's money is misused), Informed Consent Issues (when a person isn't fully aware of what they're agreeing to), and Undue Influence (when someone is pressured to make choices they wouldn't normally make). There are 4 urgent items identified; you should check the specific dates with the court or a lawyer. Safety concerns were noted in this report; see the safety resources provided below. The analysis is complete, and there are 29 follow-up questions below that could help improve the assessment.

| Informed Consent Issues

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 85%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/R87MDAJj8ZL7SprFAEqipk2>

ISSUE

Since Lorraine was taking pain medication when she signed the power of attorney document and signed where Dale pointed, this raises important questions about her ability to make informed decisions.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Informed Consent Issues' has not been explored with fact mappings

| Undue Influence

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 80%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/RW5myKZOaxNl6EtRtjlHHq>

ISSUE

The fact that Lorraine signed the power of attorney (a legal document giving someone else the authority to act on her behalf) while on pain medication and just followed Dale's instructions raises concerns about her ability to fully understand and agree to the document.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Undue Influence' has not been explored with fact mappings
- Procedural Requirement (Priority 50): What procedural steps must be taken to prove undue influence in the context of a power of attorney?

CONCLUSION

No elements defined

| Breach of Duty

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 75%

ISSUE

Dale's actions indicate a possible violation of fiduciary duty (the obligation to act in someone else's best interest), which could have serious legal consequences for protecting Lorraine's finances and well-being.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Breach of Duty' has not been explored with fact mappings

CONCLUSION

No elements defined

| Capacity Issues

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 40%

ISSUE

Even though Lorraine's mind is considered 'fine' (mentally capable), her physical condition at the time she signed the documents could raise questions about her legal ability (legal capacity) to give permission for those documents.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Capacity Issues' has not been explored with fact mappings
- Procedural Requirement (Priority 50): What evidence is required to challenge someone's legal capacity to authorize documents due to their physical condition?

CONCLUSION

| Emotional Distress and Fear

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 40%

ISSUE

Dale's threats and aggressive actions make it difficult for Lorraine to feel safe at home. This could be a reason for her to claim emotional distress (a legal term for mental suffering) and to request protective orders (legal orders that restrict someone's actions to ensure safety).

| Elder Abuse - Financial Exploitation

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 95%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/RxwfbvWrxjdHqJhrBu3RWT>

ISSUE

The facts show a repeated pattern of money being taken from Lorraine's bank account without her permission. This includes unauthorized ATM withdrawals, checks, and payments sent to Dale, which are labeled as 'caregiver pay.' These actions raise serious concerns about financial exploitation, especially considering Lorraine's vulnerable situation as an elderly person.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Fraudulent Misrepresentation: Unsupported - The perpetrator made false representations or engaged in deceitful conduct to gain control over the victim's finances.
- Mental Capacity: Unsupported - The victim did not have the capacity to understand the nature or consequences of the financial transactions.
- Vulnerability of the Victim: Supported (85% confidence) - The victim is a person who is elderly or has a disability that makes them vulnerable to financial exploitation.
  - Fact: Lorraine is 79 years old (85% match)
  - Fact: Lorraine has been widowed since 2019 (85% match)

- Unauthorized Use of Funds: Supported (85% confidence) - The exploitation involves unauthorized use or control over the victim's financial resources.
  - Fact: Lorraine receives $836.50 per month from the IUOE Local Pension Fund as a survivor benefit. (85% match)
  - Fact: Lorraine did not make or approve ATM cash withdrawals since January. (85% match)
  - Fact: Dale took my debit card to do the shopping and never gave it back. (85% match)
  - Fact: I have not seen any of the cash being withdrawn. (85% match)
  - Fact: In February, there was a check for $6,400 to a boat place. (85% match)
  - Fact: There are transfers to Dale's own account every month that are called 'caregiver pay'. (85% match)

| Domestic Violence

ISSUE

Dale's act of grabbing Lorraine's wrist hard enough to bruise her, along with his threatening comments, could lead to claims of domestic violence (abuse by a partner or family member). This situation raises serious concerns about her physical and emotional safety.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Relationship between Parties: Unsupported - There is a domestic relationship between the victim and the perpetrator.

- Act of Violence: Supported (85% confidence) - The defendant committed an act of physical violence against the victim.
  - Fact: Dale grabbed my wrist hard enough to leave a bruise on June 14th. (85% match)
- Threatening Behavior: Supported (85% confidence) - The defendant made threats that instilled fear for the victim's safety.
  - Fact: Dale threatened me, saying if I keep asking questions I'll end up at Ridgeview, that's the nursing home. (85% match)
  - Fact: I am afraid to say anything in my own house since the threat. (85% match)

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

Power of Attorney Abuse

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 40%

ISSUE

The details about how the power of attorney (a legal document that allows one person to act on another's behalf) was executed raise concerns about possible abuse. Lorraine was taking pain medication when she signed it and stated that she did not agree to some financial transactions started by her son, Dale.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Valid Power of Attorney: Supported (85% confidence) - A valid power of attorney exists that designates the attorney-in-fact and grants certain powers.
  - Fact: Lorraine M. Pryzbylski is the principal in the power of attorney document. (85% match)
  - Fact: Dale J. Pryzbylski is the attorney-in-fact and is Lorraine's son. (85% match)
- Abuse of Authority: Supported (85% confidence) - The attorney-in-fact took actions beyond the scope of the authority granted or acted against the best interests of the principal.
  - Fact: The power of attorney includes powers for family maintenance. (85% match)
  - Fact: We never once agreed to the 'caregiver pay'. (85% match)
- Informed Consent: Supported (85% confidence) - The principal was not fully informed of or able to consent to the financial decisions made by the attorney-in-fact.
  - Fact: Lorraine is 79 years old (85% match)
  - Fact: Lorraine just signed where Dale pointed (85% match)
  - Fact: Lorraine had hip surgery (77% match)

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Procedural Requirement (Priority 50): Are there jurisdiction-specific requirements for challenging the validity of a power of attorney executed under questionable circumstances?

CONCLUSION

Follow-up Steps

- [ ] [URGENT] You asked if you can 'undo' the power of attorney. Yes — as long as your mind is clear, you can revoke it at any time with a signed, dated writing, and it takes effect against others (like the bank) once they actually get notice (Minn. Stat. § 523.11). The key step is delivering written revocation to BOTH your son and the bank right away. Would you like help doing that this week? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 523.11, subd. 1 (a competent principal may revoke a power of attorney by a signed, dated writing; effective as to a third party on actual notice)]
- [ ] [URGENT] What you described — being physically hurt or threatened by a family or household member — may qualify you for an Order for Protection (a court order that can be issued the same day you ask, before any hearing). In Minnesota this is Minn. Stat. § 518B.01; other states have an equivalent. Would you like information about asking the court for one now, separate from any other case? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 518B.01 (Order for Protection; ex parte relief available)]
- [ ] [URGENT] Because you may be a 'vulnerable adult' (relying on your son for care after surgery), there is a special court order that can quickly FREEZE the account draining and block the house sale — an Order for Protection Against Financial Exploitation of a Vulnerable Adult (Minn. Stat. § 609.2334), which a judge can issue right away in an emergency. This can also be reported to the state

- (MAARC, Minn. Stat. § 626.557). Would you like to ask the court for this before the July 16 appointment? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 609.2334 (Order for Protection Against Financial Exploitation of a Vulnerable Adult — ex parte relief available); Minn. Stat. § 626.557 (vulnerable-adult reporting / MAARC)]
- [ ] [URGENT] Even under a power of attorney, your son could pay himself or transfer your money to himself ONLY if the document specifically allowed it (Minn. Stat. § 523.24) — if that box was left blank, those transfers and the 'caregiver pay' likely exceeded his authority, revocation or not. A missing notary can also make the whole POA invalid (Minn. Stat. § 523.01). Do you have the actual POA document so a lawyer can check what was and wasn't authorized? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 523.24 (statutory short-form POA authorizes self-gifting/self-transfers only if expressly elected); Minn. Stat. § 523.01 (valid POA requires acknowledgment)]
  - [ ] [URGENT] Your son grabbed your wrist hard enough to bruise and threatened you in your own home. Because he is a family/household member, you can ask for an Order for Protection that a judge can grant the same day (Minn. Stat. § 518B.01); a Harassment Restraining Order (Minn. Stat. § 609.748) is a backup. This is separate from the money issues. Do you have the photo of the bruise and would you feel safer with such an order? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 518B.01 (Order for Protection — a son living in the home is a family/household member; ex parte relief); Minn. Stat. § 609.748 (Harassment Restraining Order fallback)]

- Procedural Requirement (Priority 88): Your son grabbed your wrist hard enough to bruise and threatened you in your own home. Because he is a family/household member, you can ask for an Order for Protection that a judge can grant the same day (Minn. Stat. § 518B.01); a Harassment Restraining Order (Minn. Stat. § 609.748) is a backup. This is separate from the money issues. Do you have the photo of the bruise and would you feel safer with such an order? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 518B.01 (Order for Protection — a son living in the home is a family/household member; ex parte relief); Minn. Stat. § 609.748 (Harassment Restraining Order fallback)]

Open Questions

1. Can you tell me any specific incidents where your son made false statements to you about your money or assets?
2. Have there been times when you felt confused or unable to make decisions about your finances?
3. Would you like assistance in writing a revocation of the power of attorney to send to your son and the bank?
4. Can you provide a copy of the power of attorney document you signed?
5. Do you feel safe in your home after the incident with your son, and would you want help starting an Order for Protection?
6. Do you have any evidence, like photos of injuries or witnesses, that can support your claim for an order of protection?
7. Can you describe any actions taken by your son that made you feel financially exploited or taken advantage of?
8. Have you noticed any unauthorized transactions in your bank accounts or any changes in your finances that you're concerned about?
9. Did your son make any decisions about your finances without your approval or knowledge?
10. Can you tell us more about this? Our notes say: Element 'Fraudulent Misrepresentation' is not yet supported by any facts.

11. Can you tell us more about this? Our notes say: Element 'Mental Capacity' is not yet supported by any facts.
12. There may be a rule or deadline to check. Our notes say: You asked if you can 'undo' the power of attorney. Yes — as long as your mind is clear, you can revoke it at any time with a signed, dated writing, and it takes effect against others (like the bank) once they actually get notice (Minn. Stat. § 523.11). The key step is delivering written revocation to BOTH your son and the bank right away. Would you like help doing that this week? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 523.11, subd. 1 (a competent principal may revoke a power of attorney by a signed, dated writing; effective as to a third party on actual notice)].
13. There may be a rule or deadline to check. Our notes say: What you described — being physically hurt or threatened by a family or household member — may qualify you for an Order for Protection (a court order that can be issued the same day you ask, before any hearing). In Minnesota this is Minn. Stat. § 518B.01; other states have an equivalent. Would you like information about asking the court for one now, separate from any other case? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 518B.01 (Order for Protection; ex parte relief available)].
14. There may be a rule or deadline to check. Our notes say: Because you may be a 'vulnerable adult' (relying on your son for care after surgery), there is a special court order that can quickly FREEZE the account draining and block the house sale — an Order for Protection Against Financial Exploitation of a Vulnerable Adult (Minn. Stat. § 609.2334), which a judge can issue right away in an emergency. This can also be reported to the state (MAARC, Minn. Stat. § 626.557). Would you like to ask the court for this before the July 16 appointment? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 609.2334 (Order for Protection Against Financial Exploitation of a Vulnerable Adult — ex parte relief available); Minn. Stat. § 626.557 (vulnerable-adult reporting / MAARC)].

15. There may be a rule or deadline to check. Our notes say: Even under a power of attorney, your son could pay himself or transfer your money to himself ONLY if the document specifically allowed it (Minn. Stat. § 523.24) — if that box was left blank, those transfers and the 'caregiver pay' likely exceeded his authority, revocation or not. A missing notary can also make the whole POA invalid (Minn. Stat. § 523.01). Do you have the actual POA document so a lawyer can check what was and wasn't authorized? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 523.24 (statutory short-form POA authorizes self-gifting/self-transfers only if expressly elected); Minn. Stat. § 523.01 (valid POA requires acknowledgment)].
16. There may be a rule or deadline to check. Our notes say: Your son grabbed your wrist hard enough to bruise and threatened you in your own home. Because he is a family/household member, you can ask for an Order for Protection that a judge can grant the same day (Minn. Stat. § 518B.01); a Harassment Restraining Order (Minn.
