□ Deadlines & Time-Sensitive Items

Read this first. Missing a legal deadline can end a case. The dates below are estimates generated automatically — always confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

□ on april 6 i get an email saying no, lifting up to 50 pounds is an 'essential function,' and get this, they said the light duty program is ONLY for people who got hurt ON THE JOB. — DEADLINE MAY HAVE PASSED

- Estimated deadline: 2026-04-20
- Basis: Minn. Stat. § 504B.321, subd. 1a (14-day written notice required before an eviction action for nonpayment of rent); for other Minnesota notice-to-quit periods see Minn. Stat. § 504B.135. The period printed on your notice controls if longer.
- Triggering event: notice posted on 2026-04-06
- Jurisdiction: MN
- WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. Minnesota requires a written notice period before a nonpayment eviction can be filed; the cure/vacate date is computed from the day the notice was given. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. If this notice period has already passed, an eviction case may have been filed — but that is not the end: in Minnesota you can still raise your defenses at the eviction hearing (including paying what is owed to redeem in a nonpayment case, Minn. Stat. § 504B.291). If a judgment was already entered, ask about vacating it and about expungement (Minn. Stat. § 484.014).

□ they put me on unpaid leave that same day and said if i couldnt come back 'full duty' by late may i was done. — DEADLINE MAY HAVE PASSED

- Basis: Minn. Stat. § 504B.321, subd. 1a (14-day written notice required before an eviction action for nonpayment of rent); for other Minnesota notice-to-quit periods see Minn. Stat. § 504B.135. The period printed on your notice controls if longer.

□ the termination letter came. my supervisor derek had also been making comments for months like 'we need guys who can hustle, not broken down guys' and after i handed in the note he stopped giving me the good routes. — DEADLINE MAY HAVE PASSED

- Basis: Minn. Stat. § 504B.321 (Minnesota eviction summons/hearing procedure); the hearing date printed on your summons or hearing notice.
- Triggering event: hearing on 2026-05-22
- Jurisdiction: MN
- WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. This is the eviction hearing date printed on your court papers — you must appear; in Minnesota your defenses are raised at this hearing (there is no separate written answer deadline). Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. If this hearing date has already passed, contact the housing court immediately. If a judgment was entered against you, ask about a motion to vacate the judgment and about expungement of the eviction record (Minn. Stat. § 484.014) — missing the hearing does not always end your options.

△ Gideon is questioning if he has a deadline for filing something with the government about the discrimination. Did I already miss it, since the accommodation thing was back in April?

- Estimated deadline: 2027-01-31
- Basis: 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5(e)(1), applied to ADA claims via 42 U.S.C. § 12117(a) (in a deferral state such as Minnesota, an EEOC charge must be filed within 300 days of the discriminatory act; each discrete act — a denial of accommodation, a discharge — has its own clock).
- Triggering event: served on 2026-04-06
- Jurisdiction: MN
- To sue for disability discrimination under federal law (the ADA), you usually must first file a charge with the EEOC within 300 days of the discriminatory act in Minnesota (42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5(e)(1); § 12117(a)). Each separate act — being denied an accommodation, being fired — starts its own 300-day clock, so the EARLIEST act controls for that claim. Note: since Oct. 1, 2025 the state (MDHR) and the EEOC no longer automatically cross-file, so protect BOTH by filing with each. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

△ last winter my disc problems got real bad, herniated disc L4-L5, i have the MRI, and in february my doctor put me on a restriction, no lifting over 35 pounds.

- Estimated deadline: date unclear — this time-sensitive item needs an exact date.
- Triggering event: incident on 2026-02-01
- Jurisdiction: MN
- Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

△ on june 30 HR emailed me a 'severance agreement,' 4 weeks pay, $3,520, but i have to sign by JULY 21.

2000e-5(e)(1), applied to ADA claims via 42 U.S.C. § 12117(a) (in a deferral state such as Minnesota, an EEOC charge must be filed within 300 days of the discriminatory act; each discrete act — a denial of accommodation, a discharge — has its own clock).). ◦ Deadline: 2027-01-31

- [] [URGENT] Separate from being fired, the law required your employer to seriously discuss a 'reasonable accommodation' with you (like the scan station or lift-assist) and not just say no (42 U.S.C. § 12112(b)(5); Minn. Stat. § 363A.08). Skipping that back-and-forth (the 'interactive process') can be its own violation, with its own deadline. Did anyone ever actually discuss other job options with you before denying it? [Authority: 42 U.S.C. § 12112(b)(5) (ADA failure to accommodate / interactive process); Minn. Stat. § 363A.08 (MHRA disability accommodation)]
- [] [URGENT] You asked your boss about overtime and were fired the same day. Firing or punishing a worker for asking about unpaid wages or overtime is illegal retaliation in Minnesota (Minn. Stat. § 181.03, subd. 6; § 177.32). The timing matters a lot here. Do you have the texts or messages showing you asked about overtime right before you were fired? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 181.03, subd. 6 (retaliation for asserting wage rights); Minn. Stat. § 177.32 (MFLSA anti-retaliation)]
- [] [URGENT] The severance agreement asks you to release ALL claims — including the discrimination and accommodation claims — for the payment. Do NOT sign it without legal advice first, and note the sign-by date is a CONTRACT deadline set by the employer, not a legal filing deadline. If you do sign, Minnesota law gives you 15 days afterward to cancel the release of your state human-rights claims (Minn. Stat. § 363A.31). Would you like this reviewed before the sign-by date? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 363A.31 (15-day rescission right after signing a release of MHRA claims); a severance release generally waives ADA/MHRA/FMLA claims]

- [] [URGENT] You said you worked 50+ hour weeks but were paid straight time. In Minnesota you are generally owed time-and-a-half for hours over 48 in a week (Minn. Stat. § 177.25), and federal law may require it over 40 (29 U.S.C. § 207). Unpaid overtime can be a big part of what you are owed. Do you have a record of your weekly hours? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 177.25 (MFLSA overtime: time-and-a-half over 48 hrs/week); 29 U.S.C. § 207 (FLSA over 40 hrs/week if covered)]
- [] [URGENT] You mentioned holding back rent because the landlord is ignoring repairs. Withholding on your own can be used against you in an eviction — but there is a legal way to do it: in Minnesota you can deposit the rent with the court (rent escrow, Minn. Stat. § 504B.385) and ask the court to order repairs; other states have an equivalent. Have you asked the court about depositing your rent instead of just holding it back? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 504B.385 (rent escrow); § 504B.425 (remedies); § 504B.161 (covenants of habitability)]
- [] [URGENT] You were put on unpaid medical leave but say no one mentioned FMLA or gave you any FMLA paperwork. For an eligible employee at a large employer, failing to offer and designate FMLA leave can be unlawful 'interference' (29 U.S.C. § 2615). Eligibility depends on hours worked and employer size. About how many hours did you work in the year before the leave, and how big is the site? [Authority: 29 U.S.C. § 2615; 29 C.F.R. § 825.300 (FMLA interference — failure to designate/notify FMLA leave for an eligible employee)]
