

□ Your Safety Comes First

Some of what you shared suggests you may be dealing with a situation that could put your safety at risk. You are not alone, and help is available right now — you do not need a lawyer or any money to reach it.

If you are in immediate danger, call 911.

You can reach trained, confidential help any time:

- National Domestic Violence Hotline — call 1-800-799-7233, or text START to 88788 (<https://www.thehotline.org>)
- National Dating Abuse Helpline — call 1-866-331-9474, or text LOVEIS to 22522
- Stalking Prevention, Awareness, and Resource Center (SPARC) (<https://www.stalkingawareness.org>)
- Text the Crisis Text Line: text HOME to 741741 (open 24/7, for any kind of crisis)
- A safety plan can help you prepare for emergencies. The National DV Hotline can help create one.

Asking a court to protect you. If someone has hurt you or made you afraid, you can ask a court for an Order for Protection (sometimes called a restraining order). It is a free request you can make yourself: the court clerk's office or a local advocate can give you the forms and walk you through them, often the same day. A domestic violence advocate (reachable through the hotline above)

can help you fill them out and can go with you.

You get to decide what feels safe for you. The steps above are here whenever you are ready.

□ Deadlines & Time-Sensitive Items

Read this first. Missing a legal deadline can end a case. The dates below are estimates generated automatically — always confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

△ I got served, like a sheriff's deputy came to my work... it says I have 30 days to file a Response...

- Estimated deadline: 2026-07-15
- Basis: Minn. Stat. § 518.12 (respondent's answer due 30 days after service of the petition)
- Triggering event: served on 2026-06-15
- Jurisdiction: MN
- In a Minnesota dissolution/family matter the answer is generally due 30 days after you were served with the petition. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

⚠ There's also some court date in July, the packet has an 'Initial Case Management Conference' I think July 22...

- Estimated deadline: 2026-07-22
- Basis: The court's own summons, hearing notice, or scheduling order setting this date — a court's order or summons is the governing primary authority for a court-scheduled appearance (confirm the date against the document itself).
- Triggering event: hearing on 2026-07-22
- Jurisdiction: MN
- This is a date the court gave you directly (a hearing, court date, or stated deadline). Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

⚠ Corey showed up at my place on June 28... he grabbed my arm so hard he left a bruise (I have pictures)...

- Estimated deadline: date unclear — this time-sensitive item needs an exact date.
- Triggering event: incident on 2026-06-28
- Jurisdiction: MN
- Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

Executive Summary

This intake showed 19 possible legal problems in Minnesota. The most clearly supported issues are Supervised Visitation Requirements (rules about how a parent can see their kids), Order for Protection (a legal way to keep someone away for safety), and Domestic Violence (abuse in a home setting). There is an important deadline: I was served, meaning a sheriff's deputy came to my workplace and handed me papers... it says I have 30 days to file a Response... by 2026-07-15 [Minn. Stat. § 518.12 (the law says that the respondent must reply within 30 days after being served the petition)]. There were safety concerns mentioned in this narrative; check the safety resources below. The analysis is completely finished; 10 follow-up questions below could improve the assessment.

Order for Protection

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 85%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/RB04s7iLq0V5p3mVXkyxY77>

ISSUE

Corey showed aggressive behavior by grabbing Dahlia's arm and leaving a bruise, along with making threats about custody and calling the police. This behavior indicates that there might be a need for an order of protection (a legal order to keep someone safe) because of signs of domestic violence.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- History of Domestic Abuse: Supported (85% confidence) - There must be a documented or reported history of domestic abuse by the respondent against the petitioner.
 - Fact: Corey gets the children every other weekend. (71% match)

- Fact: Corey grabbed the speaker's arm so hard he left a bruise. (85% match)
- Threat of Harm: Supported (85% confidence) - The petitioner must demonstrate a reasonable fear of harm or imminent danger from the respondent.
 - Fact: Corey was screaming threats about the custody case. (85% match)
 - Fact: Corey threatened that Dahlia would never see the kids again if she tried anything with the petition. (85% match)
 - Fact: Corey has been texting the speaker threatening messages. (85% match)
 - Fact: The speaker has saved the threatening messages. (85% match)
 - Fact: The speaker feels like nobody is listening to her. (85% match)
- Immediate and Present Danger: Supported (85% confidence) - The incidents or threats must indicate an immediate and present danger to the petitioner.
 - Fact: Corey left a bruise on Dahlia's arm. (85% match)
 - Fact: The speaker has pictures of the bruise. (85% match)
- Jurisdiction: Supported (71% confidence) - The petition must be filed in a court that has jurisdiction over domestic violence cases, typically where the petitioner resides.
 - Fact: There is a court date in July. (71% match)

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Procedural Requirement (Priority 50): What is the timeline for filing an Order for Protection following the incident of aggressive behavior and threats, and are there any specific jurisdictional requirements that must be met?

Contempt of Court

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 70%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/RCDWrRUM7m6ja3CN3N5pgyk>

ISSUE

If there is a court order about custody (who has legal rights over a child) or parenting time (when a parent can spend time with their child) and Corey behaves in a way that breaks that order, Dahlia might have a reason to file a contempt motion (a request to the court to enforce the order). This is particularly true because there are threats and aggressive interactions involved.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Existence of a Clear Court Order: Unsupported - There must be a clear and specific court order in place that the respondent is accused of violating.
- Knowledge of the Order: Unsupported - The respondent must have knowledge of the order and its stipulations.
- Willful Disobedience: Unsupported - The respondent must have willfully disobeyed the court order.
- Material Impact: Unsupported - The violation must materially affect the rights of the petitioner or the welfare of the children involved.

- [] [URGENT] What you described — being physically hurt or threatened by a family or household member — may qualify you for an Order for Protection (a court order that can be issued the same day you ask, before any hearing). In Minnesota this is Minn. Stat. § 518B.01; other states have an equivalent. Would you like information about asking the court for one now, separate from any other case? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 518B.01 (Order for Protection; ex parte relief available)]
- [] [URGENT] In a custody decision, the court must consider any domestic abuse that has occurred between the parents. In Minnesota this is a required 'best interests' factor (Minn. Stat. § 518.17); other states have an equivalent. The incident you described may matter to the custody case itself — make sure it is raised, not just handled separately. Do you have records (photos, texts, a police report) of what happened? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 518.17, subd. 1(a)(4) (domestic-abuse best-interest custody factor)]
- [] [URGENT] You mentioned a threat to take the children away so you could not find them. Courts can put safeguards in place while a custody case is pending (holding passports, supervised exchanges, interim parenting-time terms). Tell the court about this threat — do you have it in writing or did anyone witness it? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 518.17 (interim parenting-time terms); Minn. - Procedural Requirement (Priority 90): What you described — being physically hurt or threatened by a family or household member — may qualify you for an Order for Protection (a court order that can be issued the same day you ask, before any hearing). In Minnesota this is Minn. Stat. § 518B.01; other states have an equivalent. Would you like information about asking the court for one now, separate from any other case? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 518B.01 (Order for Protection; ex parte relief available)]

- Procedural Requirement (Priority 88): In a custody decision, the court must consider any domestic abuse that has occurred between the parents. In Minnesota this is a required 'best interests' factor (Minn. Stat. § 518.17); other states have an equivalent. The incident you described may matter to the custody case itself — make sure it is raised, not just handled separately. Do you have records (photos, texts, a police report) of what happened? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 518.17, subd. 1(a)(4) (domestic-abuse best-interest custody factor)]
 - See Action Item #4
- Procedural Requirement (Priority 86): You mentioned a threat to take the children away so you could not find them. Courts can put safeguards in place while a custody case is pending (holding passports, supervised exchanges, interim parenting-time terms). Tell the court about this threat — do you have it in writing or did anyone witness it? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 518.17 (interim parenting-time terms); Minn. Stat. § 609.26 (deprivation of custodial/parental rights)]
