

□ Your Safety Comes First

Some of what you shared suggests you may be dealing with a situation that could put your safety at risk. You are not alone, and help is available right now — you do not need a lawyer or any money to reach it.

If you are in immediate danger, call 911.

You can reach trained, confidential help any time:

- Stalking Prevention, Awareness, and Resource Center (SPARC) (<https://www.stalkingawareness.org>)
- National Domestic Violence Hotline — call 1-800-799-7233, or text START to 88788 (<https://www.thehotline.org>)
- National Dating Abuse Helpline — call 1-866-331-9474, or text LOVEIS to 22522
- Text the Crisis Text Line: text HOME to 741741 (open 24/7, for any kind of crisis)

Asking a court to protect you. If someone has hurt you or made you afraid, you can ask a court for an Order for Protection (sometimes called a restraining order). It is a free request you can make yourself: the court clerk's office or a local advocate can give you the forms and walk you through them, often the same day. A domestic violence advocate (reachable through the hotline above) can help you fill them out and can go with you.

You get to decide what feels safe for you. The steps above are here whenever you are ready.

□ Deadlines & Time-Sensitive Items

Read this first. Missing a legal deadline can end a case. The dates below are estimates generated automatically — always confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer.

□ on monday june 22 i texted him formal, like my cousin told me to word it, that i demand my wages, all of it. — DEADLINE MAY HAVE PASSED

- Estimated deadline: 2026-06-23
- Basis: Minn. Stat. § 181.13(a) (upon a discharged employee's demand, unpaid wages are due within 24 hours; a penalty of the employee's average daily wage accrues for each day the employer is in default, capped at 15 days).
- Triggering event: served on 2026-06-22
- Jurisdiction: MN
- WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. In Minnesota, once you were fired and DEMANDED your unpaid wages, the employer had to pay within 24 hours (Minn. Stat. § 181.13(a)). After that, a penalty equal to your average daily pay adds up for each day they don't pay — up to a maximum of 15 days. That penalty maxes out about 15 days after your demand, so waiting longer does not add more; make your written demand and file now. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. The 24-hour deadline for the employer to pay has passed, which means the § 181.13 penalty has been running — good for you, not bad: the penalty (up to 15 days of average pay) is likely fully accrued. Bring your hours record and the demand text to a lawyer or file a wage claim with the Minnesota DLI; nothing is lost by the deadline passing, but do not keep waiting.

□ the speaker's boss stole the last two paychecks. — DEADLINE MAY HAVE PASSED

- Estimated deadline: 2026-07-10
- Basis: Minn. Stat. § 181.13(a) (upon a discharged employee's demand, unpaid wages are due within 24 hours; a penalty of the employee's average daily wage accrues for each day the employer is in default, capped at 15 days).
- Triggering event: incident on 2026-07-09
- Jurisdiction: MN
- WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. In Minnesota, once you were fired and DEMANDED your unpaid wages, the employer had to pay within 24 hours (Minn. Stat. § 181.13(a)). After that, a penalty equal to your average daily pay adds up for each day they don't pay — up to a maximum of 15 days. That penalty maxes out about 15 days after your demand, so waiting longer does not add more; make your written demand and file now. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. The 24-hour deadline for the employer to pay has passed, which means the § 181.13 penalty has been running — good for you, not bad: the penalty (up to 15 days of average pay) is likely fully accrued. Bring your hours record and the demand text to a lawyer or file a wage claim with the Minnesota DLI; nothing is lost by the deadline passing, but do not keep waiting.

□ the speaker worked from June 8 to June 19. — DEADLINE MAY HAVE PASSED

- Estimated deadline: 2026-06-20
- Basis: Minn. Stat. § 181.13(a) (upon a discharged employee's demand, unpaid wages are due within 24 hours; a penalty of the employee's average daily wage accrues for each day the employer is in default, capped at 15 days).
- Triggering event: incident on 2026-06-19
- Jurisdiction: MN
- WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. In Minnesota, once you were fired and DEMANDED your unpaid wages, the employer had to pay within 24 hours (Minn. Stat. § 181.13(a)). After that, a penalty equal to your average daily pay adds up for each day they don't pay — up to a maximum of 15 days. That penalty maxes out about 15 days after your demand, so waiting longer does not add more; make your written demand and file now. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. The 24-hour deadline for the employer to pay has passed, which means the § 181.13 penalty has been running — good for you, not bad: the penalty (up to 15 days of average pay) is likely fully accrued. Bring your hours record and the demand text to a lawyer or file a wage claim with the Minnesota DLI; nothing is lost by the deadline passing, but do not keep waiting.

Executive Summary

This intake surfaced 18 potential legal issues across state. The most strongly supported issues are Unpaid Wages, Retaliation and Wrongful Termination, and Retaliatory Firing. IMPORTANT: at least one deadline appears to have already passed — on monday june 22 i texted him formal, like my cousin told me to word it, that i demand my wages, all of it. (computed 2026-06-23) [Minn. Stat. § 181.13(a) (upon a discharged employee's demand, unpaid wages are due within 24 hours; a penalty of the employee's average daily wage accrues for each day the employer is in default, capped at 15 days).]. Confirm this immediately, as missed deadlines can end a case. Safety concerns were detected in this narrative; see the safety resources below. Analysis completeness is 100%; 37 follow-up questions below would strengthen the assessment.

Completeness Score: 100%

Untitled Intake

Generated: 2026-07-11 21:20 UTC

Matter ID: 229

Run ID: 62

Completeness: 100%

General

| Unpaid Wages

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 90%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/RBwZjjQmoJggi1yx1YBOm7>

ISSUE

The speaker has clearly stated they have not been paid for significant hours worked, which constitutes a violation of wage laws.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

CONCLUSION

No elements defined

| Retaliation and Wrongful Termination

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 85%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/RDJYLQ3woaBs6FkT7wMbB4U>

ISSUE

The timing of the firing in relation to the inquiry suggests a direct link between the speaker's question about pay and their termination, indicating potential wrongful termination.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

CONCLUSION

No elements defined

| Retaliatory Firing

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 85%

ISSUE

The timing of the firing closely follows the inquiry about pay, which could be interpreted as retaliation for exercising their right to question pay practices.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

CONCLUSION

No elements defined

| Failure to Provide Relevant Documentation

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 75%

ISSUE

Employers are typically required to provide pay stubs to employees or contractors, and the lack of documentation raises compliance concerns.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Failure to Provide Relevant Documentation' has not been explored with fact mappings

CONCLUSION

No elements defined

Violation of State Labor Laws Regarding Pay Stubs

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 75%

FOLIO IRI: <https://folio.openlegalstandard.org/R7TgV9FkR8Q4DMivxT5656>

ISSUE

State laws often mandate that workers receive documentation of hours worked and payments made, which has not occurred, potentially leading to penalties.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Violation of State Labor Laws Regarding Pay Stubs' has not been explored with fact mappings

CONCLUSION

No elements defined

| Threats and Coercion

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 70%

ISSUE

Such threats may be indicative of attempts to coerce the speaker into relinquishing their wage claims, which can be unlawful.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Threats and Coercion' has not been explored with fact mappings

CONCLUSION

No elements defined

Unlawful Retention of Final Pay

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 70%

ISSUE

The speaker has not received wages in a timely manner after making demands, which might constitute violation of payroll laws requiring timely compensation.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

No elements defined for this claim.

CONCLUSION

No elements defined

More possible issues (show more)

- Failure to Respond to Wage Demand: 40% confidence
- False Statements Regarding Employment Status: 40% confidence
- Potential Health and Safety Violations: 40% confidence
- Tax Misclassification Concerns: 40% confidence
- Unpaid Overtime: 40% confidence
- Potential Claim for Emotional Distress Damages: 30% confidence
- Emotional Distress: 25% confidence

state

Failure to Provide Pay Stubs

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 80%

ISSUE

The speaker reports never having received pay stubs, which may violate state labor laws regarding wage documentation.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Legal Requirement for Pay Stubs: Supported (85% confidence)
 - State law requires employers to provide employees with pay stubs detailing hours worked and wages paid.
 - Fact: The speaker receives no pay stubs. (85% match)
 - Fact: The speaker is always paid straight time. (81% match)
- Employer's Non-Compliance: Supported (85% confidence) - The employer failed to comply with the legal requirement to provide pay stubs.
 - Fact: The speaker has never received a pay stub since March 2024. (85% match)
 - Fact: The Company will issue IRS Form 1099 for amounts paid. (81% match)
 - Fact: The speaker receives no pay stubs. (85% match)

- Impact on Employee: Supported (85% confidence) - The lack of pay stubs affects the employee's ability to track their earnings and possibly support claims for unpaid wages.
 - Fact: The speaker receives no pay stubs. (85% match)
 - Fact: As of July 9, the speaker has not received any payment. (85% match)

CONCLUSION

3 of 3 elements supported (85% confidence)

| Misclassification as Independent Contractor

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 40%

ISSUE

The speaker's working conditions suggest they may be misclassified as an independent contractor rather than an employee under labor laws.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Nature of Work: Unsupported - The work performed is integral to the business's operations.
- Control by Employer: Supported (85% confidence) - The employer exercises significant control over the worker's schedule and job site.
 - Fact: The Contractor is not entitled to overtime, holiday pay, or any employee benefits. (81% match)
 - Fact: Rick had the speaker sign some document when starting. (85% match)

- Fact: Rick tells the speaker what job site to be at and what time. (85% match)
- Dependency on Employer: Supported (85% confidence) - The worker depends on the employer for work and has no other customers.
 - Fact: The Contractor is responsible for all taxes. (81% match)
 - Fact: The speaker cannot say no to a job or will be taken off the schedule for two weeks. (85% match)
 - Fact: The speaker has no other customers. (85% match)

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unsupported Element (Priority 40): Element 'Nature of Work' is not yet supported by any facts
 - Element: Nature of Work

CONCLUSION

2 of 3 elements supported (57% confidence)

Retaliation for Inquiring about Overtime

Claim Type: discovered | Confidence: 40%

ISSUE

The timing of the speaker's firing correlates closely with their inquiry about overtime, suggesting potential retaliation.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Adverse Employment Action: Supported (85% confidence) - The claimant experienced an adverse employment action, such as wrongful termination.
 - Fact: The speaker was fired right after asking about overtime. (85% match)
 - Fact: Rick told Junior not to come in on Monday and stated he would mail Junior's check. (83% match)
 - Fact: The speaker was not paid for the last two weeks of work. (83% match)
 - Fact: The speaker is currently not working. (77% match)
 - Fact: Rick became upset when the speaker asked about overtime. (85% match)
 - Fact: Rick fired the speaker on June 19. (85% match)
- Protected Activity: Supported (85% confidence) - The claimant engaged in a protected activity, such as asking about overtime pay.
 - Fact: Junior asked Rick about overtime pay after working 54+ hours in a week. (85% match)
- Causal Connection: Supported (81% confidence) - There must be a causal link between the protected activity and the adverse employment action.
 - Fact: The speaker believes the timing of their firing was not a coincidence. (81% match)

CONCLUSION

3 of 3 elements supported (84% confidence)

| Wage and Hour Violations

Claim Type: identified | Confidence: 40%

ISSUE

The speaker states they were not paid for the last two weeks of work and that Rick rounds down their hours, indicating potential violations of wage and hour laws.

RULE

No authorities identified for this claim.

APPLICATION

- Employee Relationship: Unsupported - The claimant must demonstrate they are classified as an employee rather than a contractor.
- Unpaid Wages: Unsupported - The claimant must show a failure to receive payment for hours worked.
- Regular Work Hours: Unsupported - The claimant must establish their regular work hours and that these hours exceeded what they were compensated for.
- Employer's Responsibility: Unsupported - The employer must be found liable for the unpaid wages as they were aware or should have been aware of the work performed.

GAPS & OPEN QUESTIONS

- Unsupported Element (Priority 40): Element 'Employee Relationship' is not yet supported by any facts
 - Element: Employee Relationship
- Unsupported Element (Priority 40): Element 'Unpaid Wages' is not yet supported by any facts
 - Element: Unpaid Wages
- Unsupported Element (Priority 40): Element 'Regular Work Hours' is not yet supported by any facts
 - Element: Regular Work Hours

- Unsupported Element (Priority 40): Element 'Employer's Responsibility' is not yet supported by any facts
 - Element: Employer's Responsibility

CONCLUSION

0 of 4 elements supported (0% confidence)

Action Items

| Documents to Gather

- [] [HELPFUL] Element 'Employee Relationship' is not yet supported by any facts
 - Claim: Wage and Hour Violations
 - Element: Employee Relationship
- [] [HELPFUL] Element 'Unpaid Wages' is not yet supported by any facts
 - Claim: Wage and Hour Violations
 - Element: Unpaid Wages
- [] [HELPFUL] Element 'Regular Work Hours' is not yet supported by any facts
 - Claim: Wage and Hour Violations
 - Element: Regular Work Hours
- [] [HELPFUL] Element 'Employer's Responsibility' is not yet supported by any facts
 - Claim: Wage and Hour Violations
 - Element: Employer's Responsibility
- [] [HELPFUL] Element 'Nature of Work' is not yet supported by any facts
 - Claim: Misclassification as Independent Contractor

- Element: Nature of Work

Follow-up Steps

- [] [URGENT] PAST-DUE? Confirm the deadline for: on monday june 22 i texted him formal, like my cousin told me to word it, that i demand my wages, all of it. (estimated 2026-06-23; Minn. Stat. § 181.13(a) (upon a discharged employee's demand, unpaid wages are due within 24 hours; a penalty of the employee's average daily wage accrues for each day the employer is in default, capped at 15 days).). WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. In Minnesota, once you were fired and DEMANDED your unpaid wages, the employer had to pay within 24 hours (Minn. Stat. § 181.13(a)). After that, a penalty equal to your average daily pay adds up for each day they don't pay — up to a maximum of 15 days. That penalty maxes out about 15 days after your demand, so waiting longer does not add more; make your written demand and file now. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. The 24-hour deadline for the employer to pay has passed, which means the § 181.13 penalty has been running — good for you, not bad: the penalty (up to 15 days of average pay) is likely fully accrued. Bring your hours record and the demand text to a lawyer or file a wage claim with the Minnesota DLI; nothing is lost by the deadline passing, but do not keep waiting.

- Deadline: 2026-06-23

- [] [URGENT] PAST-DUE? Confirm the deadline for: the speaker's boss stole the last two paychecks. (estimated 2026-07-10; Minn. Stat. § 181.13(a) (upon a discharged employee's demand, unpaid wages are due within 24 hours; a penalty of the employee's average daily wage accrues for each day the employer is in default, capped at 15 days).). WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. In Minnesota, once you were fired and DEMANDED your unpaid wages, the employer had to pay within 24 hours (Minn. Stat. § 181.13(a)). After that, a penalty equal to your average daily pay adds up for each day they don't pay — up to a maximum of 15 days. That penalty maxes out about 15 days after your demand, so waiting longer does not add more; make your written demand and file now. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. The 24-hour deadline for the employer to pay has passed, which means the § 181.13 penalty has been running — good for you, not bad: the penalty (up to 15 days of average pay) is likely fully accrued. Bring your hours record and the demand text to a lawyer or file a wage claim with the Minnesota DLI; nothing is lost by the deadline passing, but do not keep waiting.

- Deadline: 2026-07-10

- [] [URGENT] PAST-DUE? Confirm the deadline for: the speaker worked from June 8 to June 19. (estimated 2026-06-20; Minn. Stat. § 181.13(a) (upon a discharged employee's demand, unpaid wages are due within 24 hours; a penalty of the employee's average daily wage accrues for each day the employer is in default, capped at 15 days)). WARNING: this deadline appears to have ALREADY PASSED as of 2026-07-11. In Minnesota, once you were fired and DEMANDED your unpaid wages, the employer had to pay within 24 hours (Minn. Stat. § 181.13(a)). After that, a penalty equal to your average daily pay adds up for each day they don't pay — up to a maximum of 15 days. That penalty maxes out about 15 days after your demand, so waiting longer does not add more; make your written demand and file now. Estimated — confirm the exact date with the court or a lawyer. The 24-hour deadline for the employer to pay has passed, which means the § 181.13 penalty has been running — good for you, not bad: the penalty (up to 15 days of average pay) is likely fully accrued. Bring your hours record and the demand text to a lawyer or file a wage claim with the Minnesota DLI; nothing is lost by the deadline passing, but do not keep waiting.

- Deadline: 2026-06-20

- [] [URGENT] Your boss calls you an 'independent contractor,' but you said he sets your schedule and sites, supplies the van and tools, and won't let you work for anyone else — those are signs you are really an EMPLOYEE in the eyes of the law, no matter what the paper says (Minn. Stat. § 181.723 for construction work). That would unlock unpaid-wage penalties, overtime, and YES, likely unemployment benefits (Minn. Stat. § 268.035). Did you ever work for other customers, or only for him? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 181.723 (construction-industry independent-contractor test); Minn. Stat. § 268.035 (UI 'employment' definition — a misclassified worker can still qualify for unemployment)]
- [] [URGENT] You were denied unemployment for 'misconduct' over attendance — but you missed work to care for your child during a medical emergency and you called in every time. Minnesota law says an absence WITH PROPER NOTICE to care for a sick immediate family member is NOT misconduct (Minn. Stat. § 268.095, subd. 6(b)). This is likely your winning argument on appeal. Do you have proof you called in before each shift, and the hospital records? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 268.095, subd. 6(b) (absence with proper notice to care for the illness/injury of an immediate family member is NOT employment misconduct)]
- [] [URGENT] You asked your boss about overtime and were fired the same day. Firing or punishing a worker for asking about unpaid wages or overtime is illegal retaliation in Minnesota (Minn. Stat. § 181.03, subd. 6; § 177.32). The timing matters a lot here. Do you have the texts or messages showing you asked about overtime right before you were fired? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 181.03, subd. 6 (retaliation for asserting wage rights); Minn. Stat. § 177.32 (MFLSA anti-retaliation)]
- [] [URGENT] You said you worked 50+ hour weeks but were paid straight time. In Minnesota you are generally owed time-and-a-half for hours over 48 in a week (Minn. Stat. § 177.25), and federal law may require it over 40 (29 U.S.C. § 207). Unpaid overtime can be a big part of what you are owed. Do you have a record of your weekly hours? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 177.25 (MFLSA overtime: time-and-a-half over 48 hrs/week); 29 U.S.C. § 207 (FLSA over 40 hrs/week if covered)]

- [] [IMPORTANT] Potential claim 'Failure to Provide Relevant Documentation' has not been explored with fact mappings
 - Claim: Failure to Provide Relevant Documentation
- [] [IMPORTANT] Potential claim 'Threats and Coercion' has not been explored with fact mappings
 - Claim: Threats and Coercion
- [] [IMPORTANT] Potential claim 'Potential Health and Safety Violations' has not been explored with fact mappings
 - Claim: Potential Health and Safety Violations
- [] [IMPORTANT] Potential claim 'Violation of State Labor Laws Regarding Pay Stubs' has not been explored with fact mappings
 - Claim: Violation of State Labor Laws Regarding Pay Stubs
- [] [IMPORTANT] Potential claim 'Potential Claim for Emotional Distress Damages' has not been explored with fact mappings
 - Claim: Potential Claim for Emotional Distress Damages

Gap Report Appendix

Overall Completeness: 100%

[=====] 100%

Failure to Provide Relevant Documentation

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Failure to Provide Relevant Documentation' has not been explored with fact mappings
 - See Action Item #8

Misclassification as Independent Contractor

- Unsupported Element (Priority 40): Element 'Nature of Work' is not yet supported by any facts
 - Element: Nature of Work
 - See Action Item #17

Potential Claim for Emotional Distress Damages

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Potential Claim for Emotional Distress Damages' has not been explored with fact mappings
 - See Action Item #12

Potential Health and Safety Violations

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Potential Health and Safety Violations' has not been explored with fact mappings
 - See Action Item #10

Threats and Coercion

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Threats and Coercion' has not been explored with fact mappings
 - See Action Item #9

Uncategorized

- Procedural Requirement (Priority 90): Your boss calls you an 'independent contractor,' but you said he sets your schedule and sites, supplies the van and tools, and won't let you work for anyone else — those are signs you are really an EMPLOYEE in the eyes of the law, no matter what the paper says (Minn. Stat. § 181.723 for construction work). That would unlock unpaid-wage penalties, overtime, and YES, likely unemployment benefits (Minn. Stat. § 268.035). Did you ever work for other customers, or only for him? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 181.723 (construction-industry independent-contractor test); Minn. Stat. § 268.035 (UI 'employment' definition — a misclassified worker can still qualify for unemployment)]
 - See Action Item #4
- Procedural Requirement (Priority 86): You said you worked 50+ hour weeks but were paid straight time. In Minnesota you are generally owed time-and-a-half for hours over 48 in a week (Minn. Stat. § 177.25), and federal law may require it over 40 (29 U.S.C. § 207). Unpaid overtime can be a big part of what you are owed. Do you have a record of your weekly hours? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 177.25 (MFLSA overtime: time-and-a-half over 48 hrs/week); 29 U.S.C. § 207 (FLSA over 40 hrs/week if covered)]
 - See Action Item #7
- Procedural Requirement (Priority 88): You asked your boss about overtime and were fired the same day. Firing or punishing a worker for asking about unpaid wages or overtime is illegal retaliation in Minnesota (Minn. Stat. § 181.03, subd. 6; § 177.32). The timing matters a lot here. Do you have the texts or messages showing you asked about overtime right before you were fired? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 181.03, subd. 6 (retaliation for asserting wage rights); Minn. Stat. § 177.32 (MFLSA anti-retaliation)]
 - See Action Item #6

- Procedural Requirement (Priority 90): You were denied unemployment for 'misconduct' over attendance — but you missed work to care for your child during a medical emergency and you called in every time. Minnesota law says an absence WITH PROPER NOTICE to care for a sick immediate family member is NOT misconduct (Minn. Stat. § 268.095, subd. 6(b)). This is likely your winning argument on appeal. Do you have proof you called in before each shift, and the hospital records? [Authority: Minn. Stat. § 268.095, subd. 6(b) (absence with proper notice to care for the illness/injury of an immediate family member is NOT employment misconduct)]

- See Action Item #5

Violation of State Labor Laws Regarding Pay Stubs

- Unexplored Claim (Priority 50): Potential claim 'Violation of State Labor Laws Regarding Pay Stubs' has not been explored with fact mappings

- See Action Item #11

Wage and Hour Violations

- Unsupported Element (Priority 40): Element 'Employee Relationship' is not yet supported by any facts
 - Element: Employee Relationship
 - See Action Item #13
- Unsupported Element (Priority 40): Element 'Unpaid Wages' is not yet supported by any facts
 - Element: Unpaid Wages
 - See Action Item #14
- Unsupported Element (Priority 40): Element 'Regular Work Hours' is not yet supported by any facts
 - Element: Regular Work Hours

- See Action Item #15
- Unsupported Element (Priority 40): Element 'Employer's Responsibility' is not yet supported by any facts
 - Element: Employer's Responsibility
 - See Action Item #16

Open Questions

1. Did you ever work for other customers, or only for him?
2. Do you have proof you called in before each shift about missing work for your child's medical emergency?
3. Do you have hospital records or any other documentation supporting your child's medical emergency?
4. Do you have any texts, messages or other evidence showing you asked about overtime before you were fired?
5. Do you keep a record of your weekly work hours, especially on weeks you worked over 50 hours?
6. Can you describe any other incidents of mistreatment or threats from your boss related to your work?
7. Did your employer provide you with documentation regarding your pay and hours, and were they accurate?
8. Did you ever work for other customers, or only for your boss?
9. Do you have any documents or messages showing the job responsibilities and controls your boss had over your work?
10. Do you have proof that you called in every time you missed work for your child's medical emergency?
11. Do you have any hospital records or documents related to your child's medical emergency?
12. Do you have a record of the hours you worked each week?
13. Can you provide any communication you had with your boss regarding your concerns about overtime pay?
14. Do you have messages or documentation that show when you asked about overtime pay?

15. Did your boss ever make threats or attempt to intimidate you regarding your job?
16. Do you feel that your health and safety were compromised while working?
17. Have you ever received pay stubs or documentation regarding your wages and hours worked?
18. Did you ever work for anyone else, or was it just for your boss?
19. Do you keep a record of how many hours you worked each week?
20. Can you describe a typical week of work for you, including how many hours you worked?
21. What tools or equipment did your boss provide for your work?
22. Did your boss ever specify what your job duties were?
23. Do you have any messages or texts that show you asked your boss about overtime before you were fired?
24. Were you ever given pay stubs or documentation regarding your pay?
25. Did you ever feel that your work environment was unsafe? If so, what specific issues did you notice?
26. Did you experience any emotional distress related to your work situation? Can you describe it?
27. Have you ever worked for other clients, or did you only work for this boss?
28. Can you tell me about the hours you worked each week and whether you ever received overtime pay?
29. Do you have any documentation or records of your hours worked and any payments you received?
30. What tasks did you perform at work, and what tools or supplies did your boss provide?
31. Did you ever ask your boss for documents regarding your pay or working conditions? How did he respond?
32. Has your boss ever made threats or pressured you about your job or pay?

33. Were there any safety issues at your workplace that made you feel unsafe?
34. Did you receive pay stubs, and do they accurately reflect your hours and pay?
35. Have you experienced any emotional distress due to your working conditions?
36. What happened after you asked about overtime? Can you describe the firing incident?
37. Do you have proof that you called in to report your absences due to caring for your sick child?